Cardinal O'Hara

The Cardinal O'Hara Lady Hawks are looking to win their tenth straight Monsignor Martin Athletic Association championship. The Lady Hawks are coached by Nick O'Neil, who is in his ninth season at the helm. The Lady Hawks are led by five dominant young ladies:

Jordyn Williams, Brittany Day, Aliviya Russell, Kyla Hayes, and Annabelle Day. The Lady Hawks have a deep bench with Lolla Long and Emilee Bacon. The Lady Hawks had much adversity this season, including getting stuck in Florida for a tournament during the 2022 Christmas Blizzard, and having a few games canceled due to the weather. Despite getting stuck in Florida for the holidays, the Lady Hawks trip to Florida was memorable and an experience none of the girls and coaches will soon forget. Whether it was playing on NCAA hardwood or being stuck in an airbnb, it was the ultimate team bonding experience (which ended in singing Christmas carols to the passengers in the Orlando airport on Christmas day).

The Gators are looking to utilize their leadership throughout the playoffs, boasting seven seniors on the roster. In his first season as head coach, Tony Krupski inherits a balanced team with strong players at each position on the roster.

The dynamic duo of Kara Krupski and Amelia Marchese share the ball handling duties, providing a unique defensive challenge to opposing teams. Caitlin Enright, Emily Gorman, and Mary Scimia provide a strong inside presence on both ends of the floor. Molly Griffin, Taylor Seitz, and Riley Jones provide a spark with their tenacious rebounding and infectious energy. Lily Saleh and Rachel Hanley stretch defenses with their 3 point shooting ability, while Meghan Palisano, Ella Blake, and Kayla Krupski provide toughness and depth to this year's team.

Coaches

During the 2022-2023 Nichols School Girls Basketball season, the team had a 12-0 winning streak. Knocking off some major teams such as Williamsville South, Clarence, Lewiston-Porter, Randolph, Aquinas Institute and most importantly Monsignor Martin League rival Cardinal O'Hara. The girls battled in a tough fought game versus Bishop Kearney losing by only 3 points. Nichols School also played competitive match-ups versus powerhouse Lancaster. The Lady Vikings also traveled to play in the Super Scrimmage and added other competitive non-conference games to their schedule.

The season had many successes yet Quinn Benchley and Brianna Barr-Buday scoring their 1000pts in the same game against Mount Mercy was a rare achievement. Senior night was also memorable as #10 guard Cianna Tobia, #13 shooting guard Fallon Griffen and # 3 Senior Captain Point Guard Quinn Benchley left their mark. The Nichols School is proud of the hard work, dedication, and effort all Lady Vikings displayed. It was a season of Teamwork.

The Sharks hope to build upon last year's CHSAA Class B State Championship, the sixth in school history and first in Class B. First year coach Maria McGrath takes over a team that returned three starters and welcomed four new players. The team is led by seniors Meghan Trapper and Mariah Huss, both former All Catholics.

Juniors Grace Caterina and Brooke Personius and senior Abby Uglow round out the starting lineup. Seniors Emily Ruth and Grace Turecki and junior Brianna Bonvissuto return for a second year. Moving up from the JV are juniors Kate Carlone and Cosette Ziolkowki along with sophomores Anna Ratchuk and Promesse Rwigamba.

The 2023 Lancers looked to build upon last year's Class A Championship and NYS Catholic Semi-Final appearance. The Lancers returned 8 players from 2022. The Seniors bring experience, leadership and calm to the team: Maggie Dziadosz, Paige Wentland and McKenna Zaleski. Returning Junior Kierra Kline (All Catholic Selection 2022) is joined by Madison Monaco who joins the team from the JV level. Silvia Moretti joins the team from Naples, Italy and McKenzie Owens is hopeful to return in 2023.

The Sophomore class

consists of Jada Mushat (All Catholic Selection 2022), Raegan & Reece LaCotte and Macey Kovach. New to the team is Emily McDonald and Ava Gunnels, both Freshmen who look to have a positive impact on the team.

This year the Buffalo Seminary basketball team was led by coaches Eva Cunningham, Kacie Mills, Leah Kimmet and captains Maya Reynolds '24, Lola Sperry '24, and Myleigh Nentarz '25. The team this year is young and has been learning as they go about how to be leaders, be a team, and grow together. Unfortunately, due to injury the team lost their star player Maya early in the season, but Maya's insight and encouragement from the bench has helped the team press on and continue to make progress.

Mount Mercy Varsity Basketball is led by 2nd year head coach Jeremy Rowe. Coach Rowe has inherited a young team with only 3 seniors on the team but has gotten the girls to work hard and improve throughout the season. The team is led by Seniors Abigail Mailloux and Olivia Fuller. Mailloux has recently missed time with a foot injury but has been a great team leader and has served as a second coach while being sidelined. Fuller has had a strong senior season, filling up the stat sheet with points and rebounds. Mercy has also gotten great play from sophomores Bella Scarcello and Alexis Dintino. Junior Meghan Balen has also stood out on the court for the Magic this season. Mt. Mercy looks to keep their season rolling as they head into the playoffs.

Mount St. Mary Basketball is looking to continue its success in the Monsignor Martin B Division. Head coach Leah McDonell has created a program that runs off of solid defense that puts the pressure on opposing teams. The team has been led by the consistent scoring of Senior Shooting Guard Bella Richter, and the consistent sure handed Point Guard play of Junior Amanda Saber.

Sophomore, Hailey McMahon continues her success on the defensive side of the ball ranking in the top 25 in the state in steals.

Seniors Katie Paterson, Emma McNab, and Junior Grace Eberl have provided a nice presence in the paint for the Thunder this season. They have also been helped by Sophomore Jueryeliz Marrero and Freshman Lyla Tower as they are contributing some scoring coming off the bench.

The 2022-2023 Park School of Buffalo Lady Pioneers are led by 1st year coaches Victor Arroyo and Assistant Coach Khee Nance. This year the Lady Pioneers have shown a lot of improvements throughout the year and hope to get some positive feedback from its lengthy regular season. Coaches are excited about making a push to seek its 1st MMA Class B Championship in school history. The Lady Pioneers are led by Senior captain's Caeli Nwora and Kayla Johnson. Senior guard Kayla Johnson leads the pack in scoring, assists and steals. Kayla Johnson is averaging 19.7 ppg while closing in on

1,000 career points, she is also averaging 5.2 ASP and 4.3 SPG. Senior's forwards Caeli Nwora and Autumn Lucas lead the team in rebounding and block by averaging 9 rebounds per game while having 2 blocks a game each as well. The lady pioneers also have good leadership with Senior Savannah Lott and Elodie Agath who can defend multiple positions while serving other duties on the court. Sophomore transfer from Cheektowaga Alana Wilson is 2nd on the team in scoring (9.8 PPG) and Assist (3.5) and Steals (2.6). While Sophomore classmate Cecelia Gullo had grown this year as well with shooting and defense. The lady pioneer heart and soul come from Sophomore Sofia Reisman who brings positive energy every day.
