The Archbishop Walsh Eagles head to the playoffs hungry and determined. Bolstered by a veteran team, including 6 seniors, the Eagles will look to continue what has been a successful regular season campaign. Andy Moore, former University at Pitt-Bradford coach, is at the helm of this years' edition of the Walsh Eagles. Coach Moore brings a wealth of experience with him to the head position and he has earned instant respect from his players . Even though Walsh is a small school, they are competitive every time they take the floor. The schools' all-time leading scorer, Ryan Whelpley, has put together a strong senior season. Whelpley is averaging over 20 points and 13 rebounds a game. Ryan also topped 2,000 career points earlier in the season, a phenomenal accomplishment. Seniors Marcus Clarke and Deon Gayton, averaging over 14 points and 6 points a game respectively have been major contributors along the way. Junior sharp shooter Jake Chapman is also enjoying a big year with over 10 points a game. Seniors Christian Blanchard, Juan Leon, and Eric DiMartino, along with Juniors Matt Bysiek and Cameron Cook have also played important roles on this group of "team first" players. The Eagles will look to improve on their loss to #4 seed St. Mary's in last years' MMHAA Playoffs.

#2 Kyle Kobis

#1 Jordan Williams

The 2011-2012 Bishop Timon Tigers are looking to bring the Manhattan Cup back to South Buffalo. This version of the Tigers is hoping that a rigorous non-league schedule which included Niagara Falls, Chartiers Valley(PA), Mt. St. Michael(NYC), Aquinas, and Kearney will help prepare them for the Manhattan Cup playoffs. This year's Tigers are a very balanced unit led by seniors Jordan Williams, Kyle Kobis and DeMilo Gibbs. Co-captains Williams and Kobis are deadly from both the outside and in the open court. Gibbs has been a force in the low post all year with his powerful moves and soft touch. Rounding out the starting five are juniors Bryant Fulton and Ryan Dougherty. Fulton is one of the best all around players in the area, and Dougherty combines toughness with a crafty inside/outside game. Key reserves for the Tigers include Demone Harris, Zac Hayes, Donte Williams, and Manny Welch. Rounding out the Tiger's squad are Steve Heather, Sean Murphy, Tyler Hayden and Kyle Polakiewicz. The Tigers have been ranked in the top five in Western New York, and are looking to make a deep run in the playoffs.

Canisius High School Crusaders

The loss of 2 All-WNY players and key contributors to last year's Manhattan Cup Champions hasn't changed the goal of this year's team for the playoffs, winning the Manhattan Cup and keeping it on Delaware Avenue. Last season ended with a tough loss in the state playoffs leaving a sour taste that can only be relieved with a return trip and opportunity to win a state title presented by repeating as Manhattan Cup Champions.

Captains Russ Fiorella, Matthew Hart and Brendan Tenney are the senior leaders of the team. On the court, led by senior Hart, and juniors Aaron White, Matt MacDonald and Adam Weir are all looked at to provide the majority of the scoring. White is a quick, slick point guard who can get everyone involved and score when needed on offense while wreaking havoc on the opponents' guards on the defensive end. Hart has the ability to score in bunches and is deadly from anywhere on the floor, and has really improved his rebounding and defense throughout the season. MacDonald is a do everything type of player who will do anything for the team to help them win while providing a steady presence on the defensive end and showing the ability to score inside and outside the arc. Weir has continued to show improvement throughout the season on the defensive end and is the second leading rebounder on the team, and continues to impress with his ability to score inside and out. Tenney is an undersized big man who works extremely hard to rebound and defend the opponent's centers and forwards while providing an offensive spark at times. Senior Tim Schifferle patrols the post area providing an opposing force on both the offensive and defensive end. Junior reserves Ryan Raccuia, Jake Cercone, and Jamel Mosley have been a strong spark and back-up through-out the season.

A difficult non-league schedule has provided the Crusaders with tough opponents from Tacoma, WA to Tampa, FL and in between helping to prepare them for the daily rigors of a competitive Monsignor Martin Association. Between the demanding schedule and hard work the Crusaders are ready to make another Cup run.

Cardinal O'Hara High School Hawks

This year's 2011-12 Cardinal O'Hara Hawks consist of a team with only two seniors, eight juniors and one sophomore. The team is led by seniors Larry Middlebrooks and Michael Cerza. The highlight of Larry's season was a 38 point effort in the Holiday Tournament at Central Christian Academy which garnered him All-Tournament Honors. Mike Cerza had a season high 22 points in the Park School Christmas Tournament allowing him to capture a spot as a Tournament All-Star. Larry, Mike and Daryl Herring (a Junior), as Cardinal O'Hara Tri-Captains, provide great leadership both in the locker room and on the court. Daryl Herring's lightning quick and provides key free throw shooting down the stretch in couple of last second wins spurred on Cardinal O'Hara to early success this season. Anthony DiFrancesco best game of season came against St. Francis High School where he finished with a team high 18 points. Anthony had four 3 pointers in this game. Rounding out the starting five is super sophomore Zack Glowacki. Zack's accurate three point shooting and energy provides O'Hara with some much needed scoring punch. This year's squad has six juniors: Jarrett Streicher, Keith Carter, Khahi Wright, Andrew Wolbert, Brandon Snyder and Vincent Szlackton. The 2011-12 squad has been working very hard this season learning some new offensive sets. We have worked very hard installing our newer defensive system that was first introduced last season. This young team is becoming of age as we enter the Manhattan playoffs.

Niagara Catholic High School Patriots

This years 2010-2011 Patriots have one returning starter from last year's 16 win team and found themselves in search for some much needed help in building a competitive team.

Starting the year off winning the Christian Central A. Leslie Lawrence Memorial Tip- Off tournament, the Patriots felt like we were on our way to some success. But, due to a few injuries and being in-experienced the Patriots are still working to become more consistent in both effort and execution.

Being buoyed by the scoring and athletic play of junior transfer Joe Lowery Jr. and the leadership and hard work of returning senior return Eric Fields Jr., the Patriots have fought through the tough times.

Lowery, the junior transfer, leads the team in scoring at just under 23 points a game. His play has helped carry the Patriots throughout some tough times during the season.

Fields, the senior and lone returning starter, leads the team in rebounding and is second in scoring at just under 14 points a game. But, it's his leadership and dedication that helps get the team to stay together and never quit. He's been the coach on the floor game in and game out. He is also the teams leading 3pt shooter.

Freshman Jonathan Jackson has been a huge part of the team all season. Cracking the starting line up and often becoming our primary ball handler. He, along with junior Adam Winkworth, has provided the defensive toughness that's needed to compete with teams in MMAA. Winkworth, leads the team in block shots and contributes a lot on the boards. Jackson often gets the assignment of guarding the opponents best player.

Seniors Antonio Johnson, Jeff Hare, PJ Gawel, Munir Frank, and Chris Rice have been solid and consistent all season with their hustle and play. Providing the much needed role players that were asked for.

Niagara Catholic hopes to get the toughness and rebounding from their junior reserve big man Michael DeVole, who has been injured for all but six games this season.

The Nichols Vikings have a solid team after a year of rebuilding. Freshmen standouts Chris Miner, Cam Lewis and Tanner Schmit are great additions to the program. Returning starters are sophomore Greg White, juniors Adam Noonan, Liam Ryan and Eric Luko. Senior leader and team captain Tom Noonan is "looking to leave his senior year on a winning note and have a great time with the team." The Vikings have a new coach this season in Jim MacKinnon with the step down of Greg Plumb who coached for the past several years. Coach MacKinnon has many years of coaching experience including being an assistant coach two years ago during the Vikings state championship run. The team is off to a good start with four straight wins in December and is "looking to improve each and every day" says freshmen Chris Miner. Nichols looks to finish the season strong and be a competitor for the class B title this year. Go Vikings!

St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute Marauders

St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute has a rich and celebrated history in the Manhattan Cup Playoffs. Since the Cup's inception in 1948, St. Joe's has won the Cup 20 times, appeared in 29 Cup finals, retired five Manhattan Cups and holds the longest Cup title streak in history, winning the prestigious award in four consecutive seasons from 1990-1993. During this illustriate history, 15Marauders have been named the tournament's MVP with Eric Eberz winning the award twice. Only 1 other player has ever been named MVP twice in Cup history (Mike Walton of Bishop Timon).

Under the direction of Coach Mark Simon, the current edition of the Maruaders is ranked first in The Buffalo News large school poll with a 17-2 record and is in first place in the highly competitve MMHSAA which lists three teams in the top six in Western New York. St. Joe's has won five league championships, four Manhattan Cups and two State Championships during Coach Simon's tenure.

This year's edition of the Marauders returned only two players and is led by senior Reggie Agbeko who averages 19.5 points per game while recording 36 blocks, 31 assists and 279 rebounds on the seaon. Senior Kyle Briggs also returns from last year as one of the league's best defensive players, drawing the opponent's top scorer nightly. Briggs has chipped in 7.2 points per game, 37 assists, seven blocks and 67 rebounds.

The play of starting gaurds Jaylen Morris (6.4 ppg) and Jordan Glover (9.6 ppg) has been a large reason for the success of this year's squad. Starting forward Louie Oliveri's scoring (12.8 ppg) has helped replaced the loss of so many seniors from last year's squad.

The key to the success of the Marauders basketball program over the years has been the depth of the team and this year's team is a perfect example of that concept. Leading the way off the bench most nights has been the trio of Danny Maher, Dylan Hall and Mark Cerza. Combined, they average 12 ppg and have 130 rebounds. Cerza is also the second best shot blocker on the team. Providing relief at the guard position have been Greg Koch and senior Billy Stephan, who brings high energy to the game every time he hits the floor. Josh Canavan, Joe Lesh, Mike Naples and Mason Schulefand have also provided vaulable minutes in a relief role.

St. Francis High School Red Raiders

The 2011-2012 St. Francis High School Varsity Basketball team came into the season with plenty of experience, returning 4 starters and 5 of their top 6 players from last year's team. Head Coach Edward Hoak believed this year's team could compete with anyone in a loaded Monsignor Martin Athletic Association. Injuries, however quickly turned this year's Red Raiders from one that was very experienced to very young.

The Red Raiders boosted a starting lineup at the beginning of the season that included 3 seniors and 2 juniors, all of which started games the previous year. The seniors included guard Tyler Wagner, a 3 year varsity player, forward Matthew Morcio, center Miles Bartholomew and the juniors included point guard Cory Cullen and forward Brian Melisz. This lineup played the 1st game of the season together before two key injuries broke up the formable group, forward Brian Melisz was sidelined for the season after the 1st game and forward Matthew Morcio was sidelined on December 31st after averaging a double double threw the first 11 games of the season, his last game being a triple double (15pts, 12 rebounds, and 10 blocks).

The injuries however have provided an opportunity for other players to step up and fill the void. Seniors Tyler Wagner and Miles Bartholomew have carried the load for the Red Raiders; Wagner is averaging in double figures points per game and has been a threat off the dribble and from three point range. Bartholomew has manned the middle for the Raiders and is averaging more the 10 rebounds a game and has played tough defense against some of the best big men in the area. Starting junior guard Cory Cullen has been very steady at the point for the Raiders, he has handled all the pressure defenses that the MMAA opponents have thrown at him and has done it well, his ability to run the point has allowed Coach Hoak to move Wagner to the shooting guard where he is much more suited to play.

The opportunity to contribute presented itself and a host of underclassmen have seized it. Going into the season Coach Hoak and staff would have been happy to see juniors Brennan Macey, Patrick Schaefer, Kyle Evans, and Reagan Schichtel as well as JV call up sophomore David Kennedy show steady improvement throughout the season and contribute minutes off the bench when called upon. Instead junior guard Brennan Macey has started every game besides the 1st game and sophomore forward David Kennedy has started every game since January 1st . Macey has shown an ability to score in every way, whether it be off the dribble or hitting the 3, Macey has shown tremendous improvement in all phases of his game. Kennedy, was thrust into a starting role and has improved every time he has stepped out on the floor, his rebounding ability and poise under pressure has been a pleasant surprise for the Red Raiders coaching staff. Schichtel, Evans, and Schaefer have provided a spark off the bench for the Raiders and have gained valuable game inexperience. Senior Christopher Busha has split time with Bartholomew in the middle has been a steady contributor throughout the year.

To round out the Red Raiders team, reserve senior Patrick Schichtel and juniors Robert Adams and Wenny Xie have battled in practice all season long and it is because of their hard work and dedication the Red Raiders have shown the improvement they have as we march into Manhattan Cup play.

The Raiders embarked on one of the toughest non-league schedules in Western New York, taking on Rochester power Bishop Kearney and Erie PA power Cathedral Prep, as well as local powers Riverside Cheektowaga, Newfane, Williamsville North, and Frontier. These early season nonleague games gave the Raiders the Varsity level experience they needed going into the MMAA league schedule that boosts 5 teams in the WNY Top 10. The Red Raiders are playing their best basketball as of late as we move into the postseason.

The St. Francis family would like to congratulate and thank Coach Edward J. Hoak, class of 1968, for his many years of services to Red Raider athletics. Coach Hoak will be retiring as Head Coach of the varsity basketball team after 5 years at the helm. Coach Hoak started as a freshmen coach with the Red Raiders 12 years ago and has been associated with the program since the early 90's as all 4 of his sons played at St. Francis. Again we thank Coach Hoak for his years of service and loyalty to St. Francis.

St. Mary's High School Lancers

The St. Mary's High School coaching staff, entering their 4th season together, fields their most experienced team to date. The Lancers are coming off a disappointing end to their 2010-2011 season, losing to Salesian in the New York Class B Catholic State Championship. This year's team has tried to use the Lancer basketball trademarks of an aggressive defense and an up-tempo game to continue to build success. This season has produced wins in the Bennett Alumni Tournament as well as the Akron Holiday Tournament.

The coaching staff has relied on a number of players to contribute to the Lancers success. Leading this group are seniors and 3 year varsity players, Jake Denz, Nathan Meyers, Devin Redden and Erik Simmons. Simmons, one of the quickest players in the league, leads the Lancers in scoring and assists. Redden continues to be a quality scorer while developing his all-around game. Denz, a hard worker in the rebounding category can score from inside and out while Meyers continues to excel as a threat from behind the arc. Another senior, Frank Sardina, will be counted on heavily to provide an inside presence and be the coach on the floor. Seniors, Sean Floyd, Ryan Winnicki and Nicc Johnson as well as junior, Paul Rath, will be asked to play a multitude of positions and create havoc with their defensive pressure and outside shooting abilities. A solid group of key reserves have been counted on heavily at various points in the season to contribute. Quinn Gill, Dan Fabian and Erik O'Neill have played significant roles at the guard spots, while Dan McManus and Lucas Schaefer have tried to control things on the inside. Sophomore Latrell Tyson has been a fine addition to the Lancer squad with his outside shooting capabilities and his ability to get to the basket as well.

As of press time, the Lancers have completed a strong non-league schedule and are making their way through the ever-challenging Msgr. Martin league schedule. Early season highlights include participating in a variety of prestigious events such as the Pastor-Cooper Showcase, Cataract Classic, ECIC/MMA Challenge and the Depew Christmas Tournament. The St. Mary's coaching staff feels like this is a good collection of talent and experience and are looking forward to participating in this year's Manhattan Cup playoffs.

The Buffalo Seminary basketball team made a lot of strides this year in an effort to improve on last year. Coached by Eva Cunningham and Brett Schusterbauer the red tailed hawks started off strong with their non-league schedule going 4-2 and hoped to gain some momentum and confidence as they entered league play. Led by captains Julia Schreck, Olivia Knauss, Katy Melber, and Jen Cotto-Ecklund this Seminary team has come together to get their first conference win in over two years. Although Buffalo Seminary has only one conference win so far the girls continue to work hard and have improved every game as we come to the end of the season.

The 2011-2012 Cardinal O'Hara Lady Hawks are in the midst of what could be the finest season in school history. With nine returning players from last years successful campaign, this experienced and talented group has a current record of 14-3, and have been ranked #1 in the Buffalo News Smail School Poll since the second week of the season. The teams greatest strength very well might be in its' ability to blend terrific individual skill into a balanced, cohesive unit. Seven different players have scored in double figures for the high scoring Lady Hawks, who are averaging 65 points a game. Leading the way individually are captains Aaron Shabazz, who is averaging a double/double; junior Leah McDonell, who has 1088 career points; and junior point guard Kayla Brown, the teams floor general who is averaging 6 assists per game.

Other major contributors are defensive stopper Keyonte' Edwards, post players Sara DiPasquale, Kelsey McCarthy and Hannah O'Sullivan; and sharp-shooters Aisha Shabazz, Mary McDermott and Jailyn Dickson. Rounding out the roster are freshmen Gina Draksic and Haley Ryszka.

Coaches Dan McDermott, Nick O'Neil, Ron Maxwell, Matt McDermott and Steve Solomon are very encouraged with where the team is at, and that the girls will continue striving to reach their true potential.

The Holy Angels 2011-2012 Varsity Basketball team has surpassed all expectations and become one of the school's all-time best teams.

The team is looking to win its first Msgr. Martin League championship in ten years. Coach Fran Snyder says it all starts with the team's senior leadership. Captains Clarisa Matias and MaryClaire Wilber along with fellow seniors Ari Alizadeh, Sarah Marino, Jenny Griebner and Lauren Laudico have kept the team focused on and off the court.

Jontay Walton has lead the team with her "never stop going after it" attitude and her 20.3 scoring average. Jontay has also led the teams in steals with 5.2 and is 2nd in assists and rebounding. Jontay has developed into one of the best players in Western New York. Three year starter Clarisa Matias is one of the best pure shooters in WNY. Clarisa averages 12.5 points per game, but also plays the point, rebounds, plays defense and runs the floor with the best of them.

Sophomore Point Guard Awilda Murphy is the leader of the team on the court. With her exceptional ball handling she keeps the team in balance. Leading the team in assists (4.2), 3rd in scoring (8.8) per game and 2nd in steals, she plays defense on the other teams' best players and almost never comes off the court. Senior Center Ari Alizadeh has become a great rebounder (10.4) and a go-to player as the season has progressed. Senior Forward Sarah Marino has stepped up as a big game shooter with 28 3-pointers and has become a dependable rebounder.

Senior Forward MaryClaire Wilber has been a big spark off the bench with her rebounding, toughness and overall leadership. Sophomore Guard Emilee Foster has also played some key minutes throughout the season.

Holy Angels' bench Jen Griebner, Lauren Laudico, Emily Shapiro, Charlotte McLellan and Meghan Mileham have given this team the greatest support it possibly could and are the unsung heroes of the season. The team's ultimate goal is to end the season with adding a new banner to the Holy Angels Athletic Center!

Holy Angels will host its Annual Basketball Camp June 25–29, Volleyball and Soccer Camp from July 30- August 3, all for girls in 5th-8th grades. For more information call the HAA's Athletics Department at 834-7120 ext. 337.

Mt. Mercy Basketball, led by Co-Captains Emily Barrett and Jackie Kane, has shown great progress throughout the season. Maddie Parisi and Marissa Stack continue to provide leadership and outstanding shooting, while sharing the point guard position. Megan Sheehan, along with the entire team, take pride in the ability to defend many of the top players in WNY. Kerry McGough and Lee Haggerty demonstrate their toughness and dedication through their rebounding and selfless play on the floor. Seniors Kim Kocol and Jess Huss provide depth at the forward position, while contributing on the defensive end and on the boards. Allie Balys exudes toughness and tenacity in her ability to get to the basket, while Shay Davis provides lights-out shooting from beyond the arc. Thus far, Mt. Consisting of one senior, Kelly Barrett, three juniors, four sophomores and one freshman, the Thunder is a young team that has played a great defensive game throughout the season. Each player is hard-working and unselfishly contributes to the team's success.

Coach Steven Gathers sums up his experience with this year's team: "We have played some solid talent this season and had great games in both our wins and losses, but what I am most proud of is how these kids have displayed a high level of intensity, teamwork and class. Their spirit has been the foundation of our Thunder Pride!!!"

2011-2012 Nardin Gators return to the playoffs for what hopes to be a deep run. The team returns 6 players who contributed important minutes from the 2010-2011 team which finished 18-9.

The Gators will be led by returning seniors and this years tri-captains and returning starters, Darcy Corr, Colleen Daley and Katie Edbauer. They will be joined by fellow returning players, senior Kristin Cirbus, junior Monica Reiser and sophomore Kaela Natwora.

Newcomers include juniors Alyssa Donnelly, Siobhan Dwyer and Michelle Frawley and talented sophomores Nikki Frantz, Hannah Juhasz, Annie O'Brien and Isabelle "Izzy" Soares.

The Patriots were led season by junior Danielle DeVole. DeVole averaged 9 points and 10 rebounds per game. She has emerged as a team leader on and off the floor, and has put in the extra time and effort in the off season to improve her game and achieve success.

Seniors Felicia Chandler and Natalie Schrack have anchored the young Patriots providing experience and leadership. These two work very hard and have shown steady improvement throughout their careers.

Sophomore Christina Schulte is the only other returning player on the squad holding down the point guard duties. She has used her varsity experiences from last year to improve her game and we are looking forward to her having a "break out" season next year.

Sophomores Jessica Chandler, TylerLynn Langer and Marissa Ruffolo are first year varsity players for the Patriots this year. All are logging significant playing time and learning as they go. They were able to progress through the season offering significant contributions to the team.

Freshman Megan Nearhood, Kaitlynne O'Gara and Katie Rodriguez round out the roster. These three young ladies have had to learn under fire on the varsity level and have done a great job for us! The coaching staff is very excited with their progress and looks forward to their continued growth and the future of the program.

The Nichols girl's basketball team is in a rebuilding year after graduating three starters and losing another to relocation. Through a lot of hard work from the younger players and a huge senior year by its only returning starter, Kylie Reinholz (21ppg, 6 apg), the team has been far more successful than expected. They are currently 9-5 at the start of February and all players are contributing. The team includes 3 seniors Reinholz '12, Lizzie Benedict '12, Spring Sanders '12, 2 juniors Pearl Guerin '13 & Morgan McDermott '13, 2 sophomores Natalie Keiner '14 & Valerie McNamara '14 and freshman Tally Williams '15. As the team enters the final weeks of the 2011-12 campaign, the Nichols girls hope to see the experience gained throughout the season by its first year starters translate into a competitive showing in the playoffs.

As two-time back to back Monsignor Martin Champions, the Sacred Heart team came into the 2011-2012 season with a new young look. This year's squad is made up of ten new players and three returning from last year's squad. The team is led by lone senior Sara Calistro and juniors La'Trice Hall, Hannah Rehbaum, Kayla Burt and Kelly Farrell. The Sharks' roster is rounded out by juniors Mary Catherine Duggan and Gabby Marquis; sophomores Chelsea Smith, Remington Zaepfel, Jackie Adolf and Cynthia Mazraani; freshmen Julia Blujus and Maria Gabriele. With continued improvement throughout the season, Sacred Heart is challenging for First Place in the Monsignor Martin League.

Athletic Director: Dan Gill
Nickname: Lancers
Uniform Colors: White and Navy

The Lady Lancers are a very dynamic and hard-working team this season. With a renewed focus on defense and taking care of the ball, St. Mary's has worked hard to get better every day. Led sophomore sensation Ciara Rosten (#44) and her 18 ppg, 17 rpg, and 8 blocks per game, St. Mary's hopes to make some serious noise in the Monsignor Martin playoffs this year. The team is coming off its second consecutive Class "B" State Championship a season ago but the loss of five seniors from a year ago has been tough. The transition has been a fun one though for Coach Junik as the current team is filled with personality and just the right amount of swagger.

Senior captain Rose Brown (#3) along with Sabrina Hood (#22) and Samantha Poules (#20) give the team the leadership and toughness needed to compete in the best league in Western New York. 4-sport athlete Tara Barnhardt (#14) is the defensive leader and guards every team's best player and Alex Wnuk (#5) can score from anywhere.

The addition of junior guard Haley Oakes (#2) Senior Lacrosse standout Andrea Elwell (#11) and freshman Idalis Santiago (#30) and Nicole Woodward (#32) has helped round out a balanced and deep team.

Any team that is looking to make a run into the playoffs needs to be equipped with a productive bench, and St. Mary's has just that. They are able to get key minutes at every position. Guards Megan Sheppard (#1) and Peyton Harris (#21), fill a wonderful role on the team as all can hit the big shot when called upon and all are shutdown defensive players.

Natalia Dziadosz (#13), Rylee Haffey (#10) can all play down on the block, grab the tough rebound, and guard when needed. It really allows the Lancers to stay out of foul trouble while still remaining aggressive throughout the game. St. Mary's is coached by Keith Junik and assisted by Matt Ard, Chelsea Kiebzak and Jamie Snyder.
