Bishop Timon / St. Jude High School Tigers

The 2013-14 Timon Tigers have challenged themselves with a grueling schedule. Replacing four starters from the team that reached the Manhattan Cup finals a year ago, the Tigers are looking forward to the post season.

Lead by Senior All WNY guard and 1,000 plus point scorer, Donte Williams. Donte is as good as they come in the open floor and finishing at the rim.

Junior Derick Simpson has filled the stat sheet all year. Tremendous energy and quickness have made him a force in WNY.

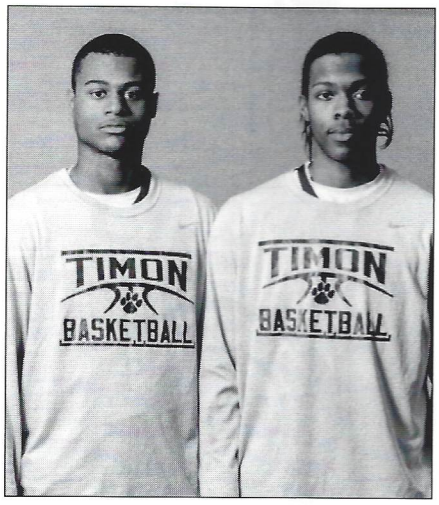

Junior Kyler Hairston stretches defenses with his outside shot. He's rebounded well on both ends of the floor. Freshman William Lamar has started the entire year at the toughest position on the court. William has handled himself with great confidence and maturity.

Seniors Layne Collins and Brandon Donohue bring their State Champion Lacrosse winning ways to the basketball court. Great, hard nosed, tireless workers, they bring high energy to the team.

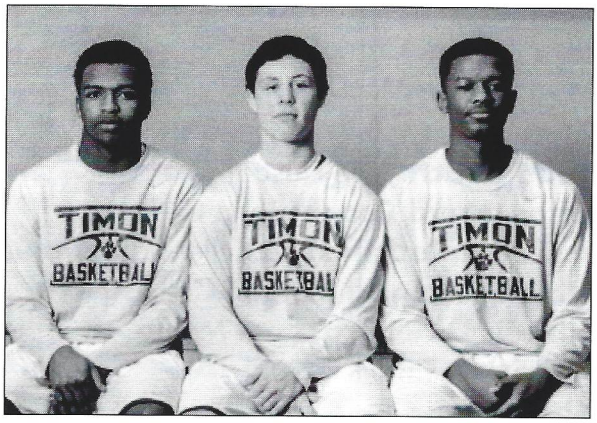

Senior Jordan Ernest and Juniors Tyree Coble, Claudius Modi bring an inside presence. All three are gifted rebounders that work hard on the offensive and defensive side of the ball. Sophmore Quinton Lamar has a good sense for rebounding and knows his way around the rim.

Rounding out the Tigers are Matt Snyder, Brandon May, Patrick Kobis and Dennis Mann. These young men have shown dedication and are the true meaning of teammate.

The Tigers have relied on the entire team throughout the year. They are excited for the opportunity to bring the Manhattan Cup back home to South Buffalo.

Canisius High School Crusaders

The loss of 3 All-WNY players along with key contributors to last year's Manhattan Cup Champions hasn't changed the goal of this year's team for the playoffs, continue to improve in order to win another Manhattan Cup for Canisius High School.

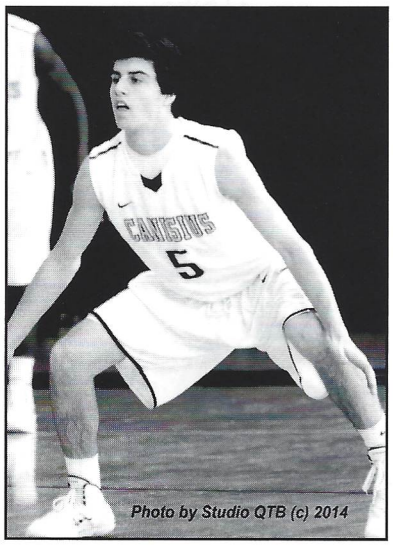

Captains Michael Keenehan and lone returning starter Ryan Richards Jr are the senior leaders of the team. Keenehan has worked tirelessly to improve during last season and over the summer and his hard work has paid off. He's regularly called upon to guard the opponent's point guard and help handle any pressure on the offensive end while being able to set up teammates to score and put the ball in the basket himself. Richards is a smooth player on both ends of the court showing bursts of athletic ability that enables him to go up against guards or forwards and has helped him gain a football scholarship to Robert Morris University. Senior Patrick MacDonald gives the Crusaders depth in the frontcourt bringing toughness on both ends that's hard to match and helps bring out the best in the rest of team.

The junior class is led by the trio of Josh Huffman, LaTerrance Reed and Tyrone Wheatley Jr. Huffman is an ultra-quick defender who can cause problems on the ball or off and then turnaround and use it to score or set up teammates in a variety of ways. Reed is a sharp shooting guard with the ability to break down defenders while showing he can be a lock down defender as well. Wheatley Jr has been a force in the paint on both ends with the ability to block shots, grab any rebound he's around and score when the opportunity is presented. Fellow junior Andrew Heitzhaus has provided backup minutes at the guard position with scrappy play and leadership.

Canisius is fortunate to have two sophomores who start and play major roles, Stafford Trueheart and Howard Washington. Trueheart is an extremely athletic big man who can finish strong at the rim and shows a soft touch around the paint while protecting the paint with his ability to block and alter shots while corralling any rebound in sight. Washington is a natural guard who can find the open man anywhere on the court while showing the ability to score inside and out. His feel for the game allows him to be in the right spot more times than not and get teammates involved. The two sophomores have already proved to be huge factors on the floor which makes the future very bright for the Crusaders, this year and beyond!

The Crusaders play one of the toughest schedules in the state to prepare themselves for league play and the playoffs. The Manhattan Cup playoffs will show if they've done enough to prepare themselves and achieve their goals.

Cardinal O'Hara High School Hawks

This year's mission is to instill our gifted student-athletes with the tools to meet and overcome the challenges that lie ahead. With this mission in mind, achieving the prestigious status of an established and successful basketball program is well within our grasp this season.

The 2013-14 Cardinal O'Hara Hawks will be led by co-captains: senior Zachary Glowacki and junior Donel Cathcart. Their veteran leadership will be important to our success as we embark on a new season. Zachary is a four year starter on the varsity team and has scored over 600 points for his career. Zachary's ability to score, along with Donel's all around skills will be keys to a successful Hawk season. Donel should contend for All Catholic Honors this season. Sophomore Center Jovell Littlejohn will be a game changer this season with his ability to block shots and rebound the basketball. Sophomores include Charles Debose III and Amir Jemes; they will handle the point guard duties and direct the offense for Coach Pfohman. Sophomore David Gariano is the Hawks three point specialist this season. Cardinal O'Hara will be an up-tempo team with the addition of freshmen Shakur Harris and Clifford Zeigler. Shakur brings a tenacious pressure defense for the team and a unique ability to get to the basket. Clifford Zeigler's rebounding and hustle will be important factors to this year's team. Coach Dave Pfohman is entering his 6th season as the Men's Varsity Basketball Head Coach at Cardinal O'Hara High School.

Niagara Catholic High School Patriots

This years' Patriot team came in with high expectations. We believed we had the right pieces to compete throughout the tough Monsignor Martin League. Three seniors, two juniors, two sophomores and a freshman make up the Patriots, and with four starters returning made it tough for a promising and competitive team.

Senior, Jonathan Jackson (last years' team leading scorer), along with Seniors Andrew Adamson and Brian Thomas were all returning starters. Plus, Junior Jake Socha.

Jonathan Jackson is the teams' spark again this season, and provides the team leadership. The Patriots thrived from his "team first" attitude, and knew he is willing to do whatever it takes for his teammates. His work is not just showcased on the court during games, but he is also the teams' best practice player always giving maximum effort. Jonathan is often given the assignment of guarding the opposing teams best player.

Andrew Adamson leads the team in scoring this year. He was regularly given the assignment of defending the opposing team's insider power player. He has a world of talent that is often tough for most teams to match up with both inside and outside. Andrew was voted Most Outstanding player for the team in the Cataract City Classic game this season.

Brian Thomas is the teams' best three point and free throw shooter while assisting with the running of the offense.

Jake Socha has shown us nothing but improvement and we see a bright future for him. Leading the team in Block shots and rebounds, he really still has not begun to show his talents. He runs the floor very well as a big man and he never backs down to any bigger stronger opposing players. He's developed a nice touch around the basket and can shoot with some range as well.

Freshman Qeyion Williams has been the blessing to this team. He's been the most consistent player on the team and has had to carry his older team mates through some tough battles. He's the second leading scorer on the team, but most importantly, he leads the team in assists and steals. Qeyion has matured greatly with this team. He understands the team concept and knows how to direct a team as if he was a polished upper classman. It's pretty safe to say that the team is going to be in great hands for the next few years. Qeyion was voted to the All- Tournament team this year in Albany NY at the Christian Brothers Academy Holiday Classic.

Zach Socha and Conner Freeburger, round out the remainder of the team. Zach is one of the team's best outside shooters. He often fills in at any position needed. Conner is a really good role player that is ready at all times to contribute to the team whenever and wherever he can.

Nichols has played an extremely competitive schedule during the 2013/14 season within the MMA and during non-league play. They are currently 10 and 7 and have been in the top 10 ranking for WNY small schools the entire season. They earned an early season overtime victory during the Upstate/Downstate tourney in Long Island with a win against Bishop Kellenberg, then came back to face Olean HS in the finals of the IABBO tournament at St. Bonaventure University where they lost by 1 in the final seven seconds. The Nichols squad has been led by junior forwards Chris Miner, Tanner Schmit, and Cam Lewis, who are all averaging double-doubles in points and rebounds.

Park has had an impressive and memorable inaugural run in the Monsignor Martin High School Athletic Association. A true team effort, the Pioneers have performed well, overcoming some hurdles along the way. Last year's IAC (Independent Athletic Conference) Champions, Park started off the 2013-14 season with an outstanding showing in Christian Central Academy's A. Leslie Lawrence Memorial Tip-Off in November, and followed that with a string of great performances since, earning the team a spot in the top 10 WNY small schools league ranking for most of the season. The Pioneers are a young team with plenty of talent and remarkable depth and are heading into the playoffs excited to be part of the league. #OrangeCrush!

St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute Marauders

Manhattan Cups and holds the longest Cup title streak in history, winning the prestigious award in four consecutive seasons from 1990-1993. During this illustriate history, 15 Marauders have been named the tournament's MVP with Eric Eberz winning the award twice. Only 1 other player has ever been named MVP twice in Cup history (Mike Walton of Bishop Timon).

Under the direction of Coach Mark Simon, the current edition of the Maruaders has an 11-8 record and in the highly competitve MMHSAA. St. Joe's has won five league championships, four Manhattan Cups and two State Championships during Coach Simon's tenure.

The Marauder's have a long history of Manhattan Cup MVP's. Past winners from St. Joe's include John Paske 1961, Dale Tepas 1967, Pete Hogan 1973, Phil Scaffidi 1974, Michael Sullivan 1980, Eric Mose 1982, Jim Killeen 1983, Chris Sprigg 1990, Eric Eberz 1991 and 1992, Jeff Muszynski 1993, Gary Riamondo 1995, Frank Tripi 2002, Tim Spitler 2004, Devon Dawson 2006 and Phil Scaffidi in 2008.

This year's team is lead by senior Justin Hollins who is averaging 18.9 PPG and 7.6 rebounds. Sophomore Justin Jones is averaging 14.4 PPG while junior Antonio Morreale with 6.4 ppg and senior Adam Killeen at 4.3. Rounding out this year's starters are Phil Wells and Matthew Fritz.

The key to the success of the Marauders basketball program over the years has been the depth of the team and this year's team is a perfect example of that concept. Leading the way off the bench most nights has been the trio of Eddy Tabone, John Scaglione and Marcell Davis. Providing relief at the guard position this season is freshman Naseer Jackson, who brings high energy to the game every time he hits the floor. Jack Hawkins, David Maher, Alex Kovacs and Tyler Hill have also provided vaulable minutes in a relief role.

The team made a pilgrimage to the Chapel of St. John Baptist de Lasalle while visiting St. Patrick's Cathedral in NYC

St. Francis High School Red Raiders

The 2013-2014 St. Francis Red Raiders came into the season with a nice mixture of experience and youth, returning 7 letter winners. The Raiders are counting on this experience to lead the way to make a run at the upcoming Manhattan Cup. The Red Raiders have battled all season in the ultra competitive Monsignor Martin Athletic Association but only have 3 league wins with 3 to play going into the final week. The Raiders have been competitive throughout the year but have been unable to close out many of the close games. They look to turn that around in the playoffs.

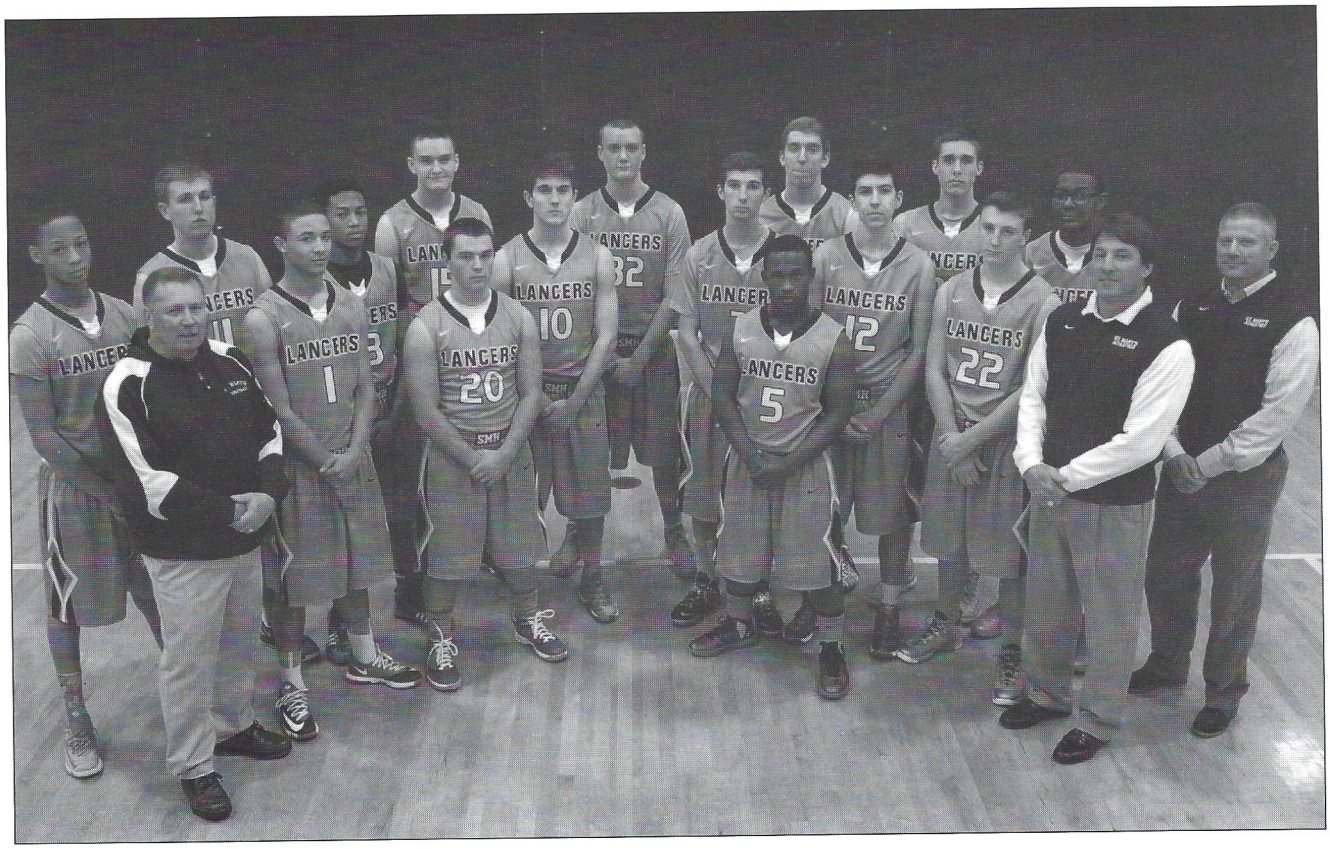

Of the 7 letter winners are 3 senior returning starters, forwards Maurice Burse and captain David Kennedy as well as center Treyvon Holness. Burse and Kennedy have been solid two way players that have shown the ability to play inside and hit the three pointer. Holness has made his presence felt inside with 10 double doubles on the season as well as averaging nearly 4 blocks per game. Returning senior center Austin Taylor has split time with Holness and has given the Raiders great production off the bench and in the starting lineup. Senior guard Christopher Shriver moved into the starting lineup this season and has been a steady ball handler as well as a deadly shooter from three making nearly 40 % from downtown. Senior reserves Conrad Gawronski and captain Alex Davis have provided leadership throughout the season for Coach Ferris.

Junior Kordell Holness-Lightbody has solidified the pg spot in a big way leading the Red Raiders in scoring (17 ppg), assists (3.2 apg), and steals (3.0 spg). Sophomore guards Kieran Barnes, Isaiah Utley, and John Steven Zhu have all seen significant minutes off the bench in their 1st season of varsity action and have gained invaluable experience throughout the season. JV call ups sophomore Garth Pinnock and freshman Daniel Barnes as well as junior reserves Max Evans, Richard Grant, and Matthew Kowalski look to add to the depth for the Red Raiders as they enter the stretch run.

Coach Ferris, his staff, and players look to play the role of spoiler in the post season and make a run at the Manhattan Cup.

St. Mary's High School Lancers

In year two under Head Coach Paul Rath, the Lancers are gearing up for the playoffs. Aggressive defense and a run and gun style of offense makes them a difficult match up for most teams. Tough wins against ranked schools such as Middle College and Clarence provides evidence of that. The Lancers won the Depew-Holiday Classic earlier this year as they were able to finish ahead of neighboring schools, Lancaster and Depew.

The coaching staff was fortunate enough to have an experienced team featuring eight seniors. Five of them have been consistent starters in Tyler English, Matt Wrobel, Cory Kiebzak, Latrell Tyson and Dione Strong. These five provide great experience and leadership for this year's Lancers. Seniors, Anthony Hinton, Marco Matteini and Aaron Denz provide experienced depth off the bench. Juniors' Sean Wilson and Jake Concannon have gained plenty of experience this season when called upon. Reserve Guards, Austin Oakes, Chris Peete, Marc O'Neill and Justin Hersey all possess a diverse skill set and bring a tremendous amount of energy to the team. Sophomore Taqal Molson has been a pleasant surprise to the coaching staff with his outside shooting capabilities and his ability to play tenacious defense.

After losing in the State Championship last season by two points, the Lancers have some unfinished business and are looking forward to participating in the Manhattan Cup once again.

Buffalo Seminary's Varsity Basketball team has continued to show improvement throughout the 2013-2014 season. Junior captain Erica Luciano leads a young and athletic team that is dedicated to becoming the best that they can be both on the court and off. Lone senior, Amanda Gareis dedication to the team has been a positive influence on the young team. Sophomores Sara Smolarek, Natalie Rice, Gabriella Augello, and Kira Yerofeev have become key contributors to the improvement of the team. Freshman Grace Gallagher, Samantha Burlow, and Alison Gareis provide the team with a strong work ethic and promising future.

Head Coach, Eva Cunningham and Assistant Coach Kacie Mills believe they have a talented group of young ladies who continue to show progress each day.

After coming off a close run for a NYS Class B Federation Championship in March, the 2013-2014 Lady Hawks of Cardinal O'Hara decided they would play perhaps their most challenging schedule in the program's history. The team made a decision to define being the best by competing with and beating the best, despite the adversity and struggles that could undoubtedly result. Highlights from the season thus far include beating large school Jamestown, defeating Erie, Pennsylvania powerhouse McDowell, and handing Williamsville North two losses.

A team this special has been in the making for years, and boasts five starting seniors, led by standout Keyonte Edwards, who has now become the third Lady Hawk welcomed into the 1000 point club in the last three years at the time of this writing. Newcomer celebrity Jontay Walton sits atop the Monsignor Martin list of all time leading scorer legends. They are joined by Kelsey McCarthy, who is perhaps one of the most dominant post players the school has seen, sharpshooting playmaker Aisha Shabazz, and multi-dimensional defensive specialist Jailyn Dickson. All five starters have played at the varsity level all four years of their high school careers.

The Lady Hawks bench is much deeper this season, and is led by trio of freshmen: Corean Dickson, Shilah Parker, Anndea Zeigler (who is battling back from a knee injury), and sophomore Elizabeth Edwards, which bodes well for the future. All four have received extended minutes in nearly every game and have performed admirably at a level beyond their years. Next up are three scrappy juniors: Jocelyn Velardi, Gina Draksic and Leah Coleman, who are always prepared to contribute when called upon. Rounding out the roster are two more freshmen: Da'Bria Scott and Diamond Robinson, who are becoming increasingly more comfortable with playing at the varsity level.

The Lady Hawks are coached by Dan McDermott, Nick O'Neil, and Matt McDermott. Dan McDermott is serving his 15th year as the Girls Head Varsity Basketball Coach at the school.

The Christian Central Academy Lady Crusader's Basketball Team consists of only eight players. These eight include three sophomores: guard Klaire Gold (#2), guard/forward Kenetria Redfern (#24), and forward Emily Miller (#32). Juniors include: guard Noelle Moran (#11), forward Abigail Stone (#30), and forward Hannah Lattimer 44). Senior Co-captains include: forward Caroline Ranallo (#5), and guard Colleen Doyle (#40).

This group of young ladies has worked very hard this year and has become very determined to being a better "TEAM". Learning and now having experienced different situations they better understand that it takes each and every player on the team to be "their' best that they can be. Each player has a specific roll and while each roll is none like the other, each player is needed. These ladies are fighters.

"This season reminds me of the Bible the verse found in 2 Timothy 4:7", states Coach Sam, "'I have fought the good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith'. Our plan is to keep fighting so we can be the best that we can be!"

After winning the state championship last year in the IAC (Independent Athletic Conference), the Park School Pioneers made the leap into the more challenging Monsignor Martin Athletic Association. This "newbie" squad is young composed of six freshmen and five sophomores and is gaining invaluable experience playing against much older teams. Led by sophomore captains Seychelle Mikofsky and Gabrielle Baumgart, this team is continually improving and learning to play an up-tempo game with strong defensive play. This is a team that doesn't back down, posting strong scores throughout the season against league veterans. Head Coach Shaun Crule and Assistant Coach Magan Campbell expect this gutsy team to become a dominant presence in the league as they gain age and experience, and grow into a seasoned squad.

Mt. Mercy Academy

The 2013-2014 Mount Mercy Magic made a commitment to get better every day, starting at the first practice and have lived up to that commitment so far this season. With eight of the twelve girls returning from last year's varsity squad, the Magic have the experience and skill to make an impact in the Monsignor Martin League.

The Magic set the tone right at the start of the season winning the West Seneca West Tournament by beating the tournament's host in the opening round and Depew in the finals. It was evident from the kickoff tournament that Mount Mercy's defensive play could be the foundation to a successful season. Over the first four games, Mount Mercy held their opponents to a mere 26.2 points per game. Their success continued into the New Year, as the Magic squared off with Pioneer in the Annual Waste Management Tournament. The Magic trailed the majority of the game but continued to fight and make big defensive plays down the stretch to come away with a 44-39 win. The following day, Mercy played for the championship against the crosstown rivals from Immaculata. Similarly to the previous game, the Magic trailed the Bears the majority of the contest and had to battle defensively to keep it close. With only a few ticks left in regulation, junior Courtney Kaczor came off the bench to sink a three to send the game into overtime. The Magic went on to secure a 64-59 victory and were named champions.

Mount Mercy's six seniors – Kerry McGough, Allison Balys, Carolyn Grandits, Jessica Alvira, Erin Kelleher, and Mary Kate Fitzgerald – provide the leadership to the team on and off the floor. These seniors have contributed to the program throughout their time at Mount Mercy and have mentored the young, talented underclassmen along the way. Junior Emily Sheehan leads the Magic in multiple statistical categories but her leadership and quiet confidence on the floor is unparalleled. Sheehan's 10-13 shooting against Nardin Academy broke the long-lasting losing streak the Magic had with the Gators. Junior Maddie O'Neil made her presence felt posting a double-double in her first start for the Magic and has continued to be a force on the boards and in the paint. Sophomore Olivia Balys had her breakout game in a double-overtime win over Springville. Her defensive play earned her additional minutes in the overtime periods and gave her the opportunity to sink the winning bucket. Overall, the Magic's season has been dictated by their defensive presence and their ability to share the ball. Different players have stepped up each night giving Mercy a balanced scoring presence. Having these players buy into this system and play with the mindset that every loose ball is theirs makes them a tough opponent for anyone.

The Mount St. Mary Thunder team has dedicated itself to playing the 2013-2014 season with determination and integrity. Consisting of three seniors, 7 juniors and 1 sophomore, the Thunder is coming off a successful 2012-13 campaign. Last year's new coach Marisa Clark, led the girls to a 14-11 season. They are hoping to repeat their winning ways. Seniors Samantha Barry, Anne McGorry and Danielle Jones have helped to lead the team and mentor their underclass teammates. Coach Clark sums up her experience with this year's team: "Each player on this team is extremely committed to the team's success. They each know their roles on this team, and do what they need to make the team better. Through their teamwork, the Thunder have enjoyed a wonderful season!"

Nickname: Gators
Uniform Colors: Green & White

The Nardin Academy High School basketball team's season thus far has been highlighted with two wins over Sacred Heart Academy and a win over Mount St. Mary Academy. All three games ended with dramatic finishes, featuring a late overtime three-pointer and great defensive stands.

The Gators are led by five seniors (Nicole Frantz, Hannah Juhasz, Kaela Natwora, Annie O'Brien and Isabelle Soares). Nine juniors (Catherine Almeter, Leah Bellitto, Amanda Boeing, Caroline Colpoys, Rachel Favre, Megan Jepson, Alyssa Lesakowski, Ainsley Mann, and Lauren Wisherath) and one sophomore (Bethany Cercone) provide the team with experienced depth.

As of February 11, the Nardin Academy High School basketball team has an overall record of 10-9 and a league record of 6-2.

Coach Joe Dougherty, in his fourth season with Nardin, has continued to build the program based upon strong defensive play and a well-balanced offensive attack. He is assisted by Meghann Roehl and Kendra Brim.

The Patriots have a very different look this year, gone is all-catholic forward Danielle DeVole who led the team in scoring and rebounding for the past two seasons. As well the Patriots lost three returning starters to injuries before the year ever started. Seniors Jessica Chandler and Marissa Ruffolo did not get the opportunity to see the floor this year, sophomore Marissa Campbell is expected to return next season.

Senior Christina Schulte took on a leadership role of a very young and inexperienced squad and has stepped up this season not only by scoring more but by showing a great work ethic. Senior Sam Martineau joined the Patriots for the first time since her freshman year and has worked very hard; her positive attitude has been a great influence on the young Patriots roster.

Returning junior Jerastaysia Briggs was joined this season by fellow junior Jeana Franjoine in her first varsity season. Briggs and Franjoine are playing significant minutes making key contributions and gaining valuable experience.

Sophomore Marina Campbell is the returning point guard and has shown great growth in her second varsity season. Catja Brusino and Melissa Whisker are first year varsity players for the Patriots this year, they are logging significant playing time and learning as they go.

Freshman Precious Adamson rounds out the roster, this young lady has stepped into a starting role and has had to learn under fire on the varsity level and has done a great job for us! The coaching staff is very excited with the teams' progress and looks forward to continued growth and the future of the program.

Athletic and aggressive, the 2013-2014 Nichols Girls Varsity basketball team steadily improved this season due to the the leadership of its veteran senior class. Point guard Val McNamara is an All-WNY preeminent soccer player who is headed to play at SUNY Binghamton in the fall. Three-sport standouts Jennifer Roach, who is headed to Williams College, and Ellen Plunkett, anchor the defense and often provide an offensive spark when needed. Rounded out by a solid core of underclassmen and senior Katie Hobika, a first year player, the team is looking forward to a strong performance in the postseason.

Led by senior Co-Captains, Chelsea Smith and Jackie Adolf, Sacred Heart Academy began this season with an array of new faces. We welcomed senior, Awilda Murphy and sophomore, Mary Rose Gaulin from Holy Angels. They joined juniors, Julia Blujus, Julia Domino, Hannah Floss and Maria Gabriele; sophomores , Kathleen Ryan, Sarah Yeager and Sarah Young completed the lineup. Mid-season, freshman Desyre Lee was called up from Junior Varsity to replace injured sophomore, Maura Tomm. Early game experiences, as well as familiarity with team expectations have had positive results and Sacred Heart is preparing for the final games of a successful season.

The 2013-2014 Lady Lancers are an interesting mix of young and old, big and small. This year's squad includes 7 seniors, 1 junior, 3 sophomores, and 3 freshmen. Seniors Ali Casillo and Jakki Steck bring some much needed size to the team, while Peyton Harris and Abby Salamone play very important roles both on and off the court. The team is led by our freshman point guard Hannah Pufpaff and leading scorer sophomore Annie Hamilton. The team has grown stronger throughout the season as the underclassmen have matured and the seniors have committed to their roles as playmakers and mentors. The roster is filled out by Seniors Rylee Haffey, Natalia Dziadosz, and Hayley Wnuk while the underclassmen include Junior Nicole Giardina... Sophomores Kendra Ciezki and Jena Zajac.... and Freshmen Kaitlyn Kowalewski and Haley Wipperman.
