Nickname: Eagles
Uniform Colors: White & Green

The Archbishop Walsh boys basketball team enters the second week of February with an overall record of 13-4, 4-0 in the Monsignor Martin High School Athletic Association B division. The Eagles have been led by junior Tavien Kemp 23ppg, 4 steals pg, senior Adam Moore adds 15ppg, and 8rbs, and senior Christian Churakos 13ppg, and 8rbs.

The Eagles have also been getting solid contributions from Junior Noah Watson 5ppg, 6rbs, and sophomore Latrell Butler-Kemp 7ppg. Senior Dominic Ambroselli has provided great leadership in practice and during the games for the Eagles. Sophomores Jose Ortiz and Charlie Kaffka, and freshman Stephen Watson, George Lowry, and Cameron Kitchen-Perez round out the roster.

Highlights of the season so far have been winning two early season tournaments, with Tavien Kemp being named MVP of both, Adam Moore named to both all tourney teams, and Latrell Butler-Kemp named to one. The Eagles have also been ranked in the Buffalo News small school boys basketball poll all season, and have risen as high as number two in the poll.

The Eagles are looking forward to the Manhattan Cup Playoffs which as always will be a challenge with the quality of the teams in the league from top to bottom.

Bishop Timon / St. Jude High School Tigers

The 2015-2016 Timon Tiger basketball team has one goal-to win the Manhattan Cup. Under new coach Desmond Randall, the team is playing their best basketball of the season as the playoffs approach. With one of the toughest non-league schedules in WNY(Aquinas x2, Kearney, Olean, Starpoint, East, Health Science, Will North, McNabb), and despite starting 4 underclassmen, Timon is currently 11-7 at the time of print, and ranked #6 in WNY. Timon is hoping their tough non-league schedule, combined with playing in the best league in Western New York, will propel them to a deep postseason run.

This version of the Tigers is led by senior Quinton Lamar, and junior Davion Warren. Quinton is averaging 16 points, 5 rebounds and 3 assists. Davion is averaging 13 points, 10 rebounds, 2 assists, and 2 steals. Quinton and Davion have been the most consistent Tigers all season long.

Three other impact starters for the Tigers are juniors Will Lamar and Joe Harrison, and Freshman Juston Johnson. Will is a three year starter, and strong all-around player. Joe is a two year starter, and is one of the deadliest long range shooters in Western New York. Juston does a little bit of everything for Timon. He leads the team in assists and steals, is third in rebounding, and plays relentless defense at all times.

Key contributors for the Tigers off the bench are seniors Hunter Lancaster and PJ Lancaster, and Junior Tim Payne. All three players have started at times for the Tigers, and will be key contributors in the playoffs. Jake Mazurkiewicz, Benny Yu, Cameron Lamar, and Adrian Baugh have all made positive contributions off the bench throughout the year.

Timon has been in the Manhattan Cup championship game two out of the last three years. Coach Randall and the players are hopeful that this is the year they break through, and bring the Manhattan Cup home to South Buffalo.

Canisius High School Crusaders

Coming off a historic season which saw the program win its 1st Class A State Catholic Championship and 1st ever Class A State Federation Championship this year's Crusaders, led by returning 1st team All-WNY selection Stafford Trueheart, look to make their own mark with hard work and diligent preparation as they make a run to win the Manhattan Cup.

With 7 seniors on the roster, leadership and experience have been key components to the team's success thus far this season. Leading the way is Trueheart, who is not only one of the best in WNY but also in the state as he earned a 2nd team All-State selection last season. Stafford continues to develop his all-around game from inside and out as well as handling the ball. With his ability to not only defend but finish at the rim, his list of college suitors is sure to continue to grow with the lucky school not only getting a fine student-athlete but an even better young man.

Seniors Will Atkinson, Madut Ayiy and Justin Jones were all contributors last season and those roles have increased greatly this season. Atkinson has become the team's point guard, but that's not all he does as he as worked hard to improve defensively both on and off the ball. Will is also the team's best shooter and has shown the ability to make shots when called upon in any situation. Madut has also worked extremely hard to improve his game and become more of an all-around player. His combination of size and length with soft hands has made him a force on either end with the ability to score not only at the rim but being able to knock down a jump shot when needed. Madut's defense continues to impress by blocking and altering shots and regularly grabbing 10+ rebounds. Justin Jones missed the first month of the season after surgery to repair a broken finger suffered during the football season. A 1st team All-State and All-WNY football player, Justin recently accepted a scholarship offer to continue his football career at Robert Morris University outside of Pittsburgh, PA. Jones regularly makes plays on both ends of the court that highlights his athleticism while also being able to make the simple play to help the team succeed. His play over the last 2 seasons has been essential to the team's success and will once again be needed as the Crusaders try to survive and advance in the postseason.

Junior Colby Moultrie, sophomore Jayce Johnson along with seniors Andrew Schake, Charles Hart and Jerimiah Wagstaff have all made contributions to the team's success. Moultrie is a smooth athlete with a quick first step and a nice touch shooting the ball. His defense has improved as he's gotten more comfortable on the floor as the season has progressed. Jayce has been called upon to handle the ball, defend and score when needed and he has done a good job with all. He works hard to improve and has continued to develop during the season. Schake has been a key defensive contributor as well as a leader for the team while also being able to score when the situation presents itself. Charles uses his size and impressive wingspan to cause problems for opposing players on both ends of the floor while altering and blocking shots and grabbing rebounds from anywhere within his reach. Schake and Hart were both key members of this year's undefeated, record setting Canisius volleyball team. Jerimiah, a first year varsity player, has been a key addition as he makes plays all over the court with his athleticism. He plays extremely hard all the time and is also a very capable scoring threat.

One big advantage the Crusaders have is a great fan base supporting the team at home games and on the road. With that support along with the team's hard work and formidable schedule, the Crusaders hope to be ready for the challenges they'll face in their quest for the cup.

Cardinal O'Hara High School Hawks

The Hawks return eight players from last season on the Varsity roster and add three new members who will impact the 2015-2016 season.

Among the veterans, Point Guard Charles Debose III is the lone senior and brings toughness at both ends of the court. Juniors Deamontae Riley, Rene Velazquez IV, and Cliff Zeigler all started several games last season for the Hawks and expect to help the team improve on the seven win season from a year ago. Returning Starting Forward Sophomore, Michon Dudley, led the team in blocked shots as a freshman and remains one of the top rebounders on the roster. Nasir Benton, Bryan Hughes, and PJ Parker, Junior Varsity call-ups, last season and expect to compete for starting positions.

Newcomer freshmen Justin Hemphill and Stephen Boyd Jr. both make an immediate impact with their size and skill. Hemphill gives the Hawks a low post presence and Boyd can play inside out with his shooting and passing abilities. Sophomore Guard, Mike Clark, is one of the team's best on-ball defenders and brings energy with his hustle and hardnosed mentality.

Even though the Hawks field the youngest roster in the Monsignor Martin High School Athletic Association, they strive to play deep into the Manhattan Cup playoffs and show that they have the ability to compete at the highest level. Second year Head Coach Tony Pulvirenti, always inspires the Cardinal O'Hara Boys' Basketball program with the same goal: Win the Monsignor Martin High School Athletic Association B League Title.

Niagara Catholic High School Patriots

The Niagara Catholic Patriots have made some progress this season. Returning were three starters from last year's team, the Patriots held their own in a very competitive Monsignor Martin High School Athletic Association.

The Patriots consisted of seven seniors; Noah Freeburger, Elijah Griggs, Jaceary Menes, Andrew Pyska, Zachary Socha, Casey Wells, and Colin Winkworth. Elijah Griggs (13.9 ppg, 6 rpg), captain/forward, consistently provided excellent scoring inside as well as being a force defensively by keeping opposing players out of the paint while leading the team in charges. Jaceary Menes (14 ppg, 2.5 apg), captain/guard, handled the ball well against defensive pressure, and controlled the tempo on the court. He also led the team in scoring. Zachary Socha (8.8 ppg, 6.6 rpg), captain/guard/forward, led the team in rebounding and blocks. Zachary was a versatile player contributing on both ends of the court. Noah Freeburger, forward, brought tenacity on the defensive end. Andrew Pyska, forward, conveyed a positive attitude that helped motivate the team. Colin Winkworth, forward, hustled on and off the court showing true sportsmanship and teamwork. Casey Wells, guard, added depth to the team. The team also consisted of two juniors; Jesse Ogundiran and Jonathan Phillips, two sophmores; Imean Davis and Nick Krupp and one freshman; Jayden Turner. Jesse Ogundiran, forward, provided a spark off the bench, hustling for loose balls and deflecting passes. Jonathan Phillips, center, added additional support in the paint, altering shots and playing good defense. Imean Davis (9.7 ppg, 5.2 rpg), guard, brought defensive pressure every game and improved his offensive output during the season. Nick Krupp (4.5 ppg), guard, contributed with outside shooting that proved valuable to the team. Jayden Turner, guard, the only freshman on the team came off the bench and contributed quality minutes during some competitive games.

Team manager, senior Jeremy Mickelson, kept stats and provided team spirit on the bench. The Patriots are coached by Giulio Colangelo.

Nichols faced some outstanding competition during the 2015/16 season within the MMHSAA and during early season tournaments that included the Lancaster Tip-Off, Bishop Kearney Showcase, Upstate/ Downstate Challenge in Long Island, Mckinley Holiday Tournament, and the ECIC Crossover.

After playing for the Manhattan Cup Championship each of the last two seasons, this has been a season full of growing pains for a young team with only three players who have any varsity experience. Throughout the season, however, the Vikings have continued to improve and are striving to establish momentum for the league playoffs.

The Park School of Buffalo's 2015-16 boys varsity basketball team had an impressive and memorable second season in the MMHSAA. After topping the Buffalo News Small Schools Poll and the MMHSAA Class B leaderboards for the entirety of the season the Pioneers won the Class B Federation Tournament last March - a thrilling end to an equally thrilling season that marked the first time in Park School history that any Park team has won a state title. This year's team has been equally impressive in its move up to Class A. With a host of returning players, the team has depth and talent which it demonstrated in game after game this season.

Coach Mike Battaglia emphasizes the importance of teamwork, patience, and smart play with all team members and it pays off as this team likes to spread the scoring around.

The bench has shown consistent growth, providing ample depth and skill as well as a bright future for Pioneer basketball. #proudpioneers

MARAUDERS

St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute Marauders

St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute has a rich and celebrated history in the Manhattan Cup Playoffs. Since the Cup's inception in 1948, St. Joe's has won the Cup 20 times, appeared in 29 Cup finals, retired five Manhattan Cups and holds the longest Cup title streak in history, winning the prestigious award in four consecutive seasons from 1990-1993. During this illustriate history, 15 Marauders have been named the tournament's MVP with Eric Eberz winning the award twice. Only 1 other player has ever been named MVP twice in Cup history (Mike Walton). Under the direction of Coach Mark Simon, the fifth winningest coach in MMHSAA history with 287 wins, the current edition of the Maruaders has an 8-10 record and in the highly competitve MMHSAA. St. Joe's has won five league championships, four Manhattan Cups and two State Championships during Coach Simon's tenure.

The Marauder's have a long history of Manhattan Cup MVP's. Past winners from St. Joe's include John Paske 1961, Dale Tepas 1967, Pete Hogan 1973, Phil Scaffidi 1974, Michael Sullivan 1980, Eric Mose 1982, Jim Killeen 1983, Chris Sprigg 1990, Eric Eberz 1991 and 1992, Jeff Muszynski 1993, Gary Raimondo 1995, Frank Tripi 2002, Tim Spitler 2004, Devon Dawson 2006 and Phil Scaffidi in 2008.

This year's team is lead by senior Nicholas Motley who is averaging 14.5 PPG and 5.2 rebounds. Senior Jordan Jenneve unfortunate suffered an injury ended his season. Senior Grant Beyer with 8.8 PPG and senior Anthony Brophy with 5.1 ppg round out the top scorers. .

The key to the success of the Marauders basketball program over the years has been the depth of the team and this year's team is a perfect example of that concept. junior Naseer Jackson brings high energy to the game every time he hits the floor, has provided a much needed lift to the Marauders as he quarterbacks the offense from the point guard position. He is second in PPG at 13.9. Providing depth off the bench, freshman Chris Stineman, sophomore Jack Capen and junior Hunter Dimitroff have provided help in the defensive zone. Juniors Caleb Cockrell, Michael Motley, Michael Telesco Razhique Sullivan and Bradley Allan have also provided vaulable minutes in a relief role.

CONDUCTED BY CONVENTUAL FRANCISCAN FRIARS

St. Francis High School Red Raiders

Coming into the 2015-2016 basketball season, coach Brian Ferris in his 4th season, expected to see marked improvement from the previous year after returning 4 starters and most of his bench. Even with all of the returning players the Red Raiders still don't start a senior and are entering February with a 9-10 record including a 3-5 record in the Monsignor Martin High School Athletic Association. The Raiders started the season in the annual Pastor/Cooper showcase and came out with a close loss to perennial WNY power McKinley. The rest of December saw the Raiders defeat the likes of West Seneca East, Albion, and Depew while losing tight games to NY Transit Tech (NYC) and Orchard Park. The Red Raiders closed December by winning the 1st Annual Buffalo Hoop Group Tournament hosted by St. Francis with wins over Hutch Tech and the then #6 ranked team in WNY, Lancaster to take the championship. Some highlights of league play to this point have been wins over Niagara Catholic, Nichols and a road victory over state ranked Walsh. The Raiders dropped two road overtime games to Timon (2OT) and St. Joe's to round out the first half of league play.

The Red Raiders have been led all season by returning sophomore shooting guard, Bo Sireika. Sireika has started every game over his first 2 years and is already closing in on scoring 1,000 points. He is currently averaging 16.2 points per game and nearly 6 rebounds per game. He has also made 50 three pointers through 19 games as he does most of his damage from deep. Sireika is joined by returning junior forwards Roburt Welch, Sean Taggart, and Michael Casciano. All three have contributed with Welch being the team's second leading scorer averaging 10.1 ppg and 6.3 rbg. Taggart and Casciano have battled in the paint and have led the team in scoring on different occasions. The biggest question mark entering the season was trying to replace All Catholic point guard Kordell Holness-Lightbody. Freshman Julian Cunningham answered that question and immediately stepped into the starting roll and has played excellent for the Red Raiders. He is currently averaging 10 ppg while having a 3 to 1 assist to turnover ratio. Outstanding numbers for any point guard much less a freshmen in his first year of high school competition. The Red Raiders have relied on a mixture of youth and experience coming off the bench. Senior guards John Steven Zhu and Isaiah Utley, both 3 year varsity players, have provided steady play while junior forward Connor Cummings and sophomore forward Joshua Palmer have been solid shooters off the bench. Upon losing junior center Cody Smith to a season ending injury Coach Ferris has handed the backup role to freshman Traevonne Scott after being called up from JV where he was averaging over 20 pts and 10 rebounds per game. Sophomore shooter Owen Woyshner, junior Evan Mangan and junior point guards Brian Dempsey and Jake Unger round off the back court rotation and have provided valuable minutes which gives coach Ferris the ability to go deep into his bench.

With so much youth in his lineup Coach Ferris, his staff expect, and his players expect to be contending for the Manhattan Cup this year and for years to come.

St. Mary's High School Lancers

The 2015-16 St. Mary's Lancers are hungry for a Manhattan Cup championship, returning just 4 varsity players from last season. The Lancers are a young inexperienced team, except for one solid returning All WNY player, Takal Molson. Takal is leading the team with points and rebounds, and is averaging a double double. Takal is a do-it all player on both ends of the court. He can score from the outside and use his quickness to get to the basket with authority. With Takal's leadership, along with fellow captain, Joe Stoj, the Lancers are eager to win the Manhattan Cup and return to the State Championship game.

Joe Stoj has come into his own and can be counted on, as he has shown great confidence and progress throughout the season. Cameron Dunning has contributed significantly with the scoring load and has been a solid defender. Kayson Hill is finally healthy after nursing an ankle injury most of the season, and will be relied on heavily. Juniors Khalil White, Daquan Hunt, and Colin Tyka have contributed solid minutes for the Lancers on both ends of the court.

Sophomores Eric Brown, Matt Ciezki, and Christian Szablewski have all played significant minutes, and have all appeared in starting roles during the season. They're young, but have gained valuable experience that will certainly help the Lancers playoff run.

St. Mary's had a tough non-league schedule and earned wins against University Prep, Health Science, and Fredonia. They took 1st in both the Williamsville North Five Guys Tournament, Depew Christmas Tournament, and participated in prestigious events such as the Al Pastor-Cooper Tournament, and MMA/ECIC Challenge.

The St. Mary's Lancers look to peak at the right time and continue the season in the MMHSAA playoffs.

The Cardinal O'Hara Lady Hawks are the defending MMHSAA Champions. The girls are continuously working hard to improve and win another Championship for Cardinal O'Hara High School. They have stepped up to the task consistently with their determination and strong work ethic. The Lady Hawks are still faced with a tremendous amount of adversity and uphill battles as they face the same rigid non-league schedule as the previous year's squad; playing against such schools as Villa Maria (PA.) Ranked 15 in Nation, Bishop Kearney (Rochester), Aquinas (Rochester), North Catholic of Pittsburgh, Williamsville South and East Aurora. We truly believe that being the best means playing with and beating the best. C.O.H.S. has a 50 game winning streak against local teams.

The Lady Hawks are fortunate to have (SR) forward Summer Hemphill who recently committed to the Univ. Of Buffalo on full Athletic scholarship along with (JR) Anndea Zeigler who joined the 1000 point club with her incredible ability to score in and out of the paint and has offers from UB and Canisius. Standout JR players Cori Dickson and Shilah Parker are both well rounded and contribute immensely to the success of the team with their ability to break down defenders and their capacity to score. Elizabeth Edwards (SR) is a player who brings scoring and playmaking to the team. Rounding out the returning players who bring excitement and energy to the team are (JR) Da'Bria Scott and (SOPH) Standouts Kiara Johnson(C), Nickelle O'Neil (pg) and Cierra Harrison (sg). Once again, Cardinal O'Hara brings in a strong freshmen class with Angel Parker and Robbyn Sommerville laying a strong foundation for the future.

The Lady Hawks are coached by Nick O'Neil and Dan McDermott assisted by Delano Fabor, Shaq Dudley and Vern Duncan.

The 2015-2016 Christian Central Academy Crusaders began the season with a commitment to persevere through any and all challenges, and to further develop a Christ-like team character in the process. With seven of the eleven girls joining the team for their very first Varsity season, and some for their first season ever, the Crusaders were prepared for a season of learning more about the game of basketball, and seeing what they could accomplish together in the Monsignor Martin High School Athletic Association.

Christian Central Academy's three seniors – Klaire Gold, Emily Miller, and Tenia Wesley – provided the experience and leadership to guide this young team through the many challenges they faced. Their knowledge and experience were critical as the team faced more seasoned athletes and teams. Miller was a consistent leading scorer and rebounder for the team as well as leading the MMHSAA in scoring and rebounding. Emily's bigger achievement as a member of the CCA Basketball has her in the 1,500 plus points club. Her commitment to excellence on and off the court has been and will continue to be an inspiration to her teammates, and she will certainly have a successful basketball career at the collegiate level. Gold and Wesley also proved to be vital to the team's success this year, as they also ranked tops at CCA in points and steals per game. These seniors have contributed to the program throughout their time at Christian Central Academy, and have mentored the young, talented underclassmen along the way.

The Crusaders displayed a commendable depth of heart and passion for the game, through their tremendous effort during practices and games. Junior Olivia Jones and Sophomore Jillian Kasmore led the underclassmen in scoring, becoming leading members of this team and ensuring a strong future for the CCA basketball program. The season would not have been complete without the effort of the young basketball players on the team, some of which were playing in their first basketball season ever. These girls displayed a daily willingness to struggle and learn new skills, which helped the team grow and develop in their overall abilities and success. With their continued commitment to the program, CCA is sure to be a team to reckon with in seasons to come.

The Park School of Buffalo's 2015-16 season saw the girls varsity basketball team grow and improve under a new coaching staff and the knowledgeable and enthusiastic leadership of team captain, senior Seychelle Mikofsky. Mikofsky has played basketball at Park since she was in the Lower School and is a true leader on the court. She scored her 1,000th career point earlier this season.

This is a building season for a team of new and returning players that is composed of three freshmen, four sophomores, seven juniors, and a single senior. They have learned to play with grit and enthusiasm, gaining invaluable experience matching up against the league's more established teams. The Pioneers used each game to continuously improve as the season progressed, both winning and losing some closely-contested and very exciting games. This is a team that doesn't back down and prefers an up-tempo playing style with strong defense. Fans can expect to see the Pioneers become a dominant presence in the league as they continue to grow. #proudpioneers

Mt. Mercy Academy

Although only four players from last year's Class A finalist team returned this season, the Mount Mercy Magic basketball team has worked hard this season to be a competitive squad. Employing selflessness and a team-first mentality, the Magic have overcome their youth and inexperience to develop into a true team. Each team member knows her role and sacrifices personal goals and statistics for the betterment of the team.

Senior Olivia Balys, a four year varsity player is leading the Magic this season. She leads the team in scoring, averaging 12 points per game. She is also a top rebounder with 8 boards a game and a tenacious defender. New to the team this year and leading in assists is senior point guard Leah McQuiller. She has been a strong scorer for the team, making the most three point baskets while averaging ten points. Junior Mallory Ashe has shown consistent improvement during her second season of varsity action, averaging eight points and nine rebounds. Junior Anne Bamrick's hustle and aggressiveness are an integral part of the Magic's pressure defense. Freshman Alesia Hamm continues to develop into a strong inside presence. Returning varsity players juniors Clare McKeone and Beth Hughes have provided quality minutes off the bench. Juniors Abby Krug, Marisa May, Grace O'Neil and Brigid Lempko also provide depth for the Magic.

The Mount St. Mary Academy Varsity Basketball team is coming off the most successful season in program history, as the 2014-15 team was NYS Catholic School Class B Champions. The Thunder started off the 2015-16 season with a bang, jumping out to a 7-3 record in the first month of play.

The Thunder look to continue their early season success in the Monsignor Martin High School Athletic Association Playoffs.

Under first-year head coach Marissa Pullo and without having a single senior rostered, the Nardin Academy Gators' 2015-2016 season has been a year of transition and growth. With junior Abby Adams manning the offense at the point guard position and the dual-threats of Alex Hartnett and Alex Herman, the Gators prove they can give any team a run for their money on any given day.

Defensively, getting by 6'1" freshman Judy Spira in the paint seems to be impossible at times, while the quick hands of junior Sydney Scello and freshman Lindsay Karas regularly lead to steals and fast breaks. Sophomore Maddie Marks is often called upon for her defensive prowess, but also proves to be a threat beyond the 3-point line. Remy Raccuia, Izzy Vasquez and Anna Flaherty provide a spark off the bench with their speed and tenacity, and Caroline Mahoney and Emma Pyrak add depth at the forward position.

The future looks bright for these young Gators.

The Patriots entered the season with an experienced roster. Of the 10 players on the roster 7 are seniors with varsity experience.

All 7 seniors have made key contributions at some point this season and the growth of their games has been significant. Twin sisters Marina and Marissa Campbell have shown great maturity on both ends of the floor and have provided consistency in the line-up. Melissa Whisker, Shannon Martineau and Naomi Cain have provided added scoring touch to the team this year and Catja Brusio has anchored the middle for the Patriots this season becoming a more vocal leader. Alyssa Alvarez has returned from injury for her senior season and has logged quality minutes.

Juniors Quasie Clark, Molly Schrack and Jill Lamb are all returning to the court this season after missing their sophomore seasons due to injury. Each of them are working very hard to make up for lost time and have been able to contribute to the team.

The coaching staff is very excited with the teams' progress and looks forward to continued growth and the future of the program.

After a remarkable home opener for the Nichols Lady Vikings in the 2015/16 season, the team proved their talent on the basketball court. The Nichols girls faced many nonleague opponents in the first half of the season, including two tough losses against Rochester's Aquinas and Mount Mercy. The adversary challenged the girls to come together and play as a team, picking up their league record to 4-2. The Vikings continue to rally looking towards the league playoffs.

The 2015-16 Sharks are off to a fast start. There are 8 returning players from last year's team along with 5 newcomers to round out the 13 player roster. Led by senior tri captains Kathleen Ryan, Sarah Young, and MaryRose Gaulin, this year's squad is looking to avenge the loss in last year's Monsignor Martin High School Athletic Association semifinals.

Playing together and playing great team defense has been emphasized from the beginning of the season. Pushing each other at each and every practice has proved to be successful as the Sharks have started their season with a 12-4 record.

SHA has had to regroup after losing 2 starters, Kathleen Ryan (knee) and fellow senior Grace Galvin (ankle) to injury. Senior Maura Tomm and sophomore Micaela Ryan have transitioned into the starting lineup joining sophomore Danielle Hore and seniors MaryRose Gaulin and Sarah Young. A strong bench includes juniors Mia DiFrancesco, Desyre Lee, Alisa Schaefer, and Sarah Krieger as well as sophomores Liz Hill and Tori Sippel. The Sharks are looking to make a strong run through the Monsignor Martin High School Athletic Association playoffs and continue on to the New York State Catholic tournament.

The team works well together on and off the court. Through the leadership of the team captains, the team collected over 300 pairs of gently worn shoes to be donated to Catholic Charities. Catholic Charities will distribute the footwear to third world countries.

This season, the 2015-2016 St. Mary's Lady Lancers team used a combination of experienced and first year players to build a competitive and hard working team. Senior Co-Captains Annie Hamilton and Jena Zajac lead the backcourt with hustle and intensity. Their veteran leadership along with Seniors Bridget Herod and Erica Michalski help provide a hard working and committed attitude for the team to follow.

Four Juniors; Haley Wipperman, Kaitlin Kowalewski, Grace Fuller and Stephanie Hossenlopp contribute to the teams physical and intense style of play.

The team is rounded out by Freshmen Caroline Zanghi and Caitlin Bish who both start for the Lady Lancers.

The team has adjusted well to first year Coach Jason Kline's style of play and has gained momentum recently heading into the final weeks of the regular season. Pushing the pace of the game on offense and controlling rebounds are two principles that the team will use to attempt a successful playoff run.
