Bishop Timon / St. Jude High School Tigers

The late-summer transfer of All-Catholic and 1,000 point scorer Julian Cunningham and the opening-game, season-ending knee injury to 6' 7" potential All-Catholic forward Alero World, forced second-year Head Coach Jason Rowe to adjust both roster and scheme in 2018-19.

Senior Tahron Goudelock, who was moved to point guard, averaged 18.9 points-per game during the regular season and recently became the 17th Timon Tiger to reach the 1,000 point plateau. Complimentary backcourt support came from seniors Nyan Chiagi and Sean Hayes, junior Simon Miazga along with underclassmen Kamar Goudelock, Kevin Thompson and late call-up Leo Camelloni.

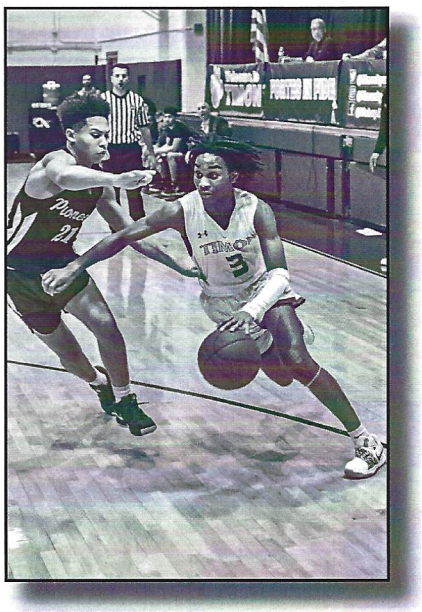

The 'frontline by committee' is led by Forward John Shields 10.2 ppg, the athletically gifted Ring Mobil , 'do-everything' Jeremy Glinski, bruising center Alex Reinhardt and high-energy Brandon Laury.

Coach Rowe is assisted by Jeremy Rowe, Joe Licata and Chris O'Connell.

Canisius High School Crusaders

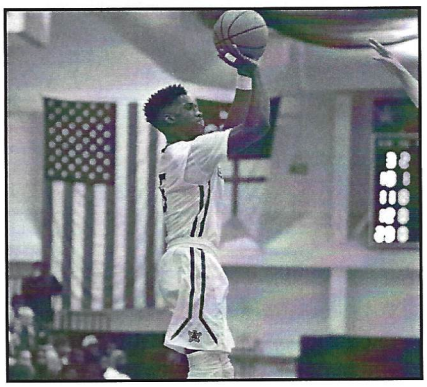

After a 23 win 2017-2018 season, the Crusaders graduated seven key contributors from last year's team. The current edition of Canisius basketball features many new faces who are working hard every day to make their own mark in the always competitive Monsignor Martin High School Athletic Association.

The Canisius Crusaders feature a very young roster in 2018-2019 as five underclassmen, including two sophomores are playing significant minutes. Junior point guard Dewayne Vass has established himself as one of the league's best all-around players as he currently leads CHS in scoring (15 per game), rebounds, assists, and steals. Senior Joe Jamison is a great athlete and a 1st team all-state football selection who will be attending Duquesne University on a football scholarship. Joe is a tireless worker and competitor who'll do whatever is needed to help the team succeed whether it's scoring, passing, rebounding or defending the other team's best players. Junior classmates Ish Fairclough and Eric Kegler have adjusted into new roles this season and are providing contributions on both ends of the floor. Senior Jason Martin and sophomore Joe Ciocca are both excellent three point shooters who have stretched defenses all season long. Ciocca is shooting over 40% from long distance and started his varsity career by winning tournament MVP of the Tom Keenan Memorial in December. Sophomore Max Dowling gives Canisius a strong post presence and is getting better and better as the season progresses. Joe Ingrando and Andrew Hartnett have provided senior leadership for CHS along with steady play off the bench in critical situations. Juniors Jihad Almadrahi and Abdalla Masrour have provided a spark when called upon in games and bring energy to practice on a daily basis.

The Canisius fan base of parents, students, alumni, and friends remain the best in WNY and provide a great advantage each night for the blue and gold. The Crusaders have played a very challenging schedule with the goal of improving every game and peaking at the right time in their quest to bring the Manhattan Cup back to Delaware Avenue.

The 2018-19 Cardinal O'Hara Hawks are enjoying one of their best seasons in program history, which includes tournament championships in both the STOP-DWI Winter Classic in Binghamton and the Ken-Ton Holiday Showcase. Also league victories over Canisius, St. Francis, Timon, and St. Joe's.

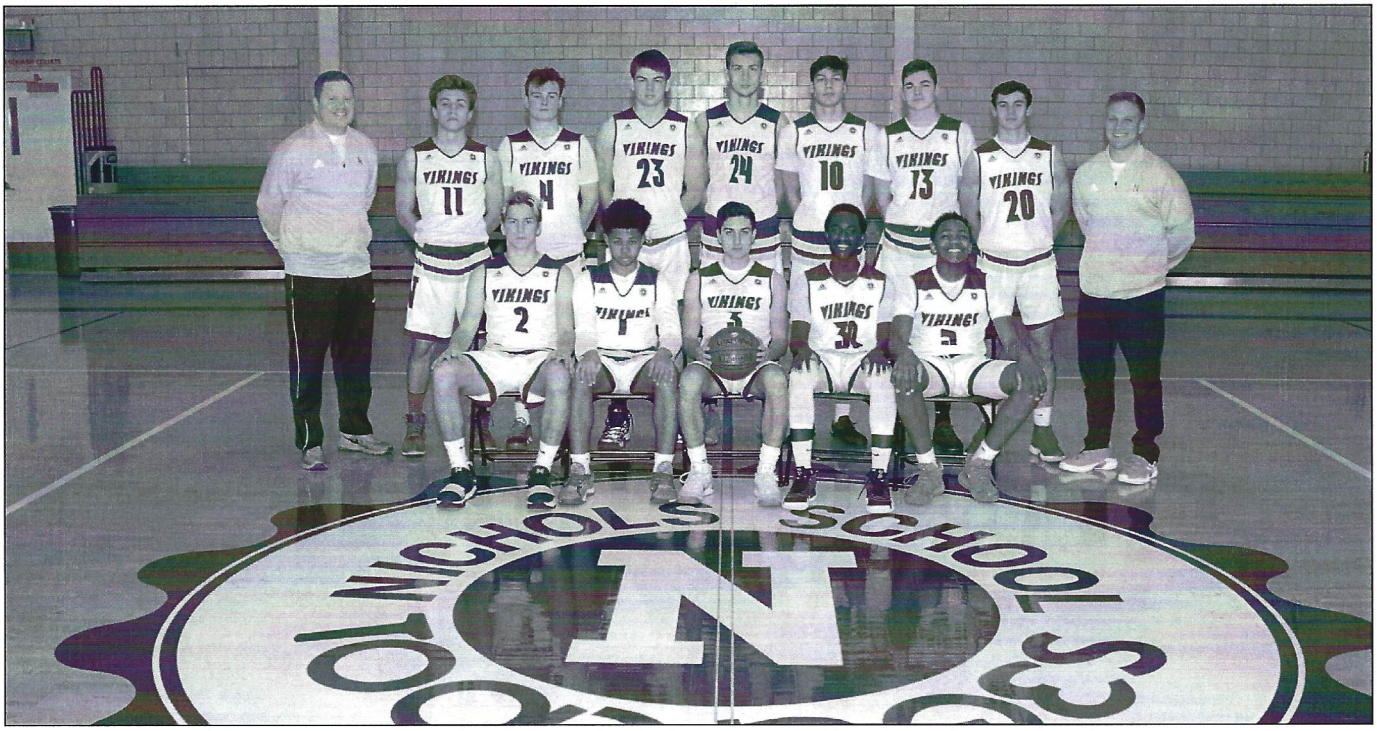

The Hawks are led by 1,000 point scorers and returning Senior starters Justin Hemphill and Jermaine Haynes Jr. Hemphill now owns the school record for career points scored and total rebounds. Haynes eclipsed 1,000 points on 1/23/19 vs. Tapestry, the same night Hemphill recorded his 1,000th career rebound. Senior Haakim Siner impacts the game with his all-around play, recording multi double-doubles and even one triple double throughout the season, while Juniors Avion Harris and Jaedin Cottman bring a defensive mindset to the Hawks' starting lineup. Harris leads the team with 4.8 steals per game while Cottman averages 2.0 blocks and 8 rebounds.

Senior Joe Turri and Junior Yehshua Lee have been very productive off the bench. Making contributions in every game and helping the Hawks compete at a high level. Junior Joe Bohlman, Sophomore Henry Smith, and Freshman Jimmie Green III round out the Hawks' 2018-19 Roster.

The 2018-19 season has been one of tremendous growth. This edition of Nichols Basketball is hitting its stride at the right time. Led by 6'6" Senior Chris Stineman, he is a difference maker averaging 15 pts., 12 rebounds and 5 blocks a game. Junior Aidan Horan is an all-around player averaging 15 pts., 8 rebounds and 5 assists per game. Nichols relies on him to do it all. Senior Jake Bair's athleticism is equal to anyone in WNY. Jon Goodloe has been a calming force in the backcourt and has been reliable with the ball the entire year. These two bring a wealth of experience to the lineup. Sophomores Hugh Purks and Jaylen Hearon have contributed consistently all year on both ends of the floor. Both have stepped up against some of the best teams in WNY and have proven they are up for the challenge.

The 2018-19 team is completed with Julian Freeman, Matt Raiff, Clarke Thrasher, Marcus Ottaviano, Billy Locke and Jesse Adamu. All of these players have been critical for this year's success. No team can be successful without an entire team effort and commitment. This team is one the Nichols family can be proud of and is prepared to bring a Championship back to 1250 Amherst St.!

St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute Marauders

St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute has a rich and celebrated history in the Manhattan Cup Playoffs. Since the Cup's inception in 1948, St. Joe's has won 20 times, appeared in 29 finals, retired 5 Cups. The Marauders hold the longest title streak in the history of the Manhattan Cup, winning in four consecutive seasons from 1990 - 1993.

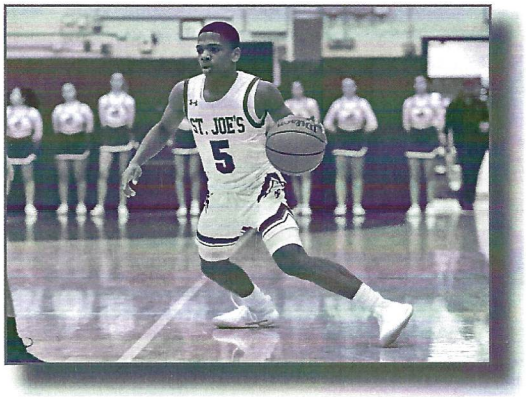

During this illustrious history, 15 Marauders have been named tournament MVP, with Eric Eberz winning the award twice. Only one other player has been named MVP twice in the history of the Cup - Mike Walton of Bishop Timon. Past MVP winners from St. Joe's include John Paske 1961, Dale Tepas 1967, Pete Hogan 1973, Phil Scaffidi 1974, Michael Sullivan 1980, Eric Mose 1982, Jim Killeen 1983, Chris Sprigg 1990, Eric Eberz 1991 & 1992, Jeff Muszynski 1993, Gary Riamondo 1995, Frank Tripi 2002, Tim Spitler 2004, Devon Dawson 2006, and Phil Scaffidi in 2008.

This years team is lead by a balanced attacked including Senior guards Santino Martone (8.7 ppg) and Will Ostrowski (9.9 ppg) Junior guard Daesean Ashley (13.5 ppg and 4.1 assists) and Junior Center Greg Poland (7.8 ppg and 7.1 Rebounds). Two Freshman have been major contributors: Point guard Justin Glover (8.7 ppg and 5 assists) and Jimmy Scott (6.8 rebounds per game).

St. Francis High School Red Raiders

The 2018-2019 St. Francis Red Raider basketball team came into the season with high expectations. The Red Raiders returned 4 of 5 starters and most of their bench from the season prior. The 8 seniors on this year's team have experienced the highs of winning the regular season championship in 2017 and know what it is going to take to get back to the Manhattan Cup Championship game. To prepare the Raiders for the MMAA schedule and the Manhattan Cup Playoffs Coach Ferris and the Red Raiders embarked on their toughest non-league schedule to date with teams from Long Island, Syracuse, Rochester and some of the top teams in WNY. This season has been one filled with ups and downs, but the battle tested Raiders are ready as they move into the Manhattan Cup Playoffs

The Red Raiders season started with impressive wins against WNY powers McKinley, Health Science Charter, and West Seneca West. The Raiders also battled in tough non-league losses against Holy Trinity (LI), UPrep (Rochester), Bishop Ludden and Bishop Grimes from Syracuse. The early part of the MMAA schedule has the Red Raiders record at 5-3 with wins over Timon, St. Mary's, St. Joseph's, Walsh, and Nichols. With the second round of games against the A Division opponents still to come the Red Raiders look to close out the season on a high note with the regular season title still within reach. The Raiders have spent the entire season ranked in the Top 5 in Large school polls as well as stints ranked in the Class A NYS rankings. Having played one of the top schedules in WNY the Raiders are primed for another run at the Manhattan Cup.

Individually the Raiders are led by the senior trio of Justin Poumpey, Lucas Theisen and Dorion Ivey. Theisen leads the team averaging a double on the season with 14.4 ppg and 10.1 rpg. Ivey is second on the team scoring 11 ppg and Poumpey is averaging 9 points per game to go along with nearly 6 assists a game. The Red Raiders are also receiving major contributions from 3 underclassmen guards as sophomores Amiel Collins and Peyton Consigli and junior Jack Bickerstaff have all led the team in scoring at different times throughout the season. At the center position the Raiders have relied on junior forward David Bartholomew and senior Traevone Scott to battle in the paint and chip in on the score sheet when called upon. The Red Raiders have a great deal of depth this year led by 4 seniors, forward Ryan Lack and guards Noah Unger, Eli Williams, and Daniel Busha. Rounding out the Red Raiders rosters are junior pg Chris Dempsey and shooting guard Teddy Katholos.

The St. Francis Red Raiders basketball team with the support of the students, fans, and alumni look to get back to the finals and bring the Manhattan Cup back to Athol Springs.

The 2018-2019 St. Mary's Lancer men's basketball team makes no excuses. With only one returning member from last year's team, our season started slow and the wins were hard to come by and weren't coming easy. The lone returning player from last year's team, Brady O'Brien, doubled as a player and an assistant coach, helping our team to get the continuity we desperately needed with all of the young new players. His leadership ability as our team captain is immeasurable. It took us a little longer but as the season comes to a close, the Lancers are playing their best basketball of the season. Our young squad is gaining confidence and we hope to surprise some teams in the Monsignor Martin playoffs.

The 2018-2019 Cardinal O'Hara Lady Hawks are the defending four time Monsignor Martin Champions. The girls are continuously working hard to improve and win another Championship for Cardinal O'Hara High School. However, without the prior seasons 3 ALL WNY graduating seniors, this is now a very young team led by POY Angel Parker and Robynn Sommerville. These two seniors have stepped up consistently to the task by their determination and strong work ethic. The Lady Hawks still faced with a tremendous amount of adversity continue on their same rigid non-league schedule as the previous year's squad playing against such schools as Bishop Kearney (Rochester), Gwynn Park (MD), North Catholic (PA) and Parkdale (MD). We truly believe that being the best is by playing against and beating the best. The Lady Hawks are fortunate to have Angel Parker, who recently joined the 1,000 point club with her incredible ability to score in and out the paint. Standout senior Robynn Sommerville along with Maya Gandy round out our senior class. We have a bright future with an incredible sophomore class including Mia McCarthy, Aaliyah Parker, Amelia Strong, Sydney Mountain, Gianna Padula and Alex Buckley. Finally, Cardinal O'Hara once again brings in a strong freshman class with Jada Rutledge and Courtney McClaney, COHS's strong foundation for the future.

This year's Mercy Magic team prides itself in their hard-working defense. Knowing the many challenges their schedule presented, the Magic stressed the need to stay committed to limiting their opponents with communication and outstanding effort. No one individual helped the team work toward that goal more than Alesia Hamm. This senior was responsible to defend the opponents top scorer each night. Solid post play has been a constant for the team. The Magic often won the rebounding and battles in the paint due to the strong performances by Josslynn Strang (senior) and Hannah Fredo (sophomore). Each of these players had a number of double doubles this season. Hannah led the team with blocked shots, while Josslynn's work ethic and positive example were keys to success. Sophomores Emily Kessler and Catherine Zak have demonstrated by their attitude, effort, and performance that they are prepared to assume larger roles and further brighten the future of the Mercy Magic.

The Magic offense was directed by the team's point guard, Tierney Ashe (junior). Tierney, the team leader in assists, was responsible for protecting the ball and running the offense against many aggressive, hard-pressing defenses. She was supported in the back court by the long range perimeter shooting of Angel Pacholczak (senior) and Katie Hughes (junior). Cecelia Strang (sophomore) provided an aggressive style of offense with her fearless dribble drives to the hoop. The team was also made better through the efforts of first year varsity players, juniors Taliyah Shabazz and Britney Meredith. Through their practice efforts and unselfishness, these juniors have challenged themselves and their teammates to improve their skills on a daily basis.

This Magic team "believes" the best is yet to come. They have set their sights on doing the work necessary to reach their goals as they prepare compete for a league title.

The Gators are looking to utilize their leadership throughout the playoffs, boasting five seniors on the roster. In her first season as head coach, Janessa Vandegriff inherits a balanced team with strong underclassmen to bolster each position on the roster.

The dynamic trio of Lindsay Karas, Mae Jauch and Katie Kostelny share the ball handling duties, providing a unique defensive challenge to opposing teams. Judith Spira, Julia Lesakowski and Emma Jauch provide a strong inside presence on both ends of the floor. Jenna Locke, Bridgetta Ulrich and Madeline Higgins provide a spark with their tenacious rebounding and infectious energy. Ainsley Boras continues to be a dual threat with her ability to drive to the basket and thrive behind the three-point line. Maria Coughlin and Rachel Regan provide tenacious defense at the guard position, while Katherine Battin and Eleanor Robertson provide toughness and depth to this year's team.

Coming off a winning season last year, as the Msgr. Martin Runner-Up and finishing the 2017-18 CHSAA season as Class A state champions, this young Sacred Heart team is in a "rebuilding phase" returning only 3 players from last year's roster. Joining the 3 returners, are a group of solid underclasswomen to round out the tough squad of 9 players. Sacred Heart has an overall record of 6 – 12 playing some of the toughest competition across New York State. In the MMHSAA League play Sacred Heart is 3-5 with 4 league games left before playoffs. Head coach Carrie Owens is assisted by Lakea Palmer, who played with and was also coached by Coach Owens, at the collegiate level, at D'Youville College. She is also assisted by volunteer coach Sal Caterina. The team is constantly learning about themselves, working hard, and getting better with each game! The Sharks have two returning starters from last year, senior guard co-captain Erin Hardick, and junior guard co-captain Siobhan Ryan. The other returning veteran is Josh-Lynne Jenifer who brings a lot of experience and strength to the team. Rounding out the roster is a group of young, talented, hungry underclasswomen, with sophomores Lauren McCrea, Rachel Adolf, Caroline Carlson, Janell Steed, Erin Trapper, and freshwoman Morgan Giancaterino. The Sharks hope to finish out the season strong and return to the Catholic State Tournament!

50	Tori Wipperman	F	12	5'7

The 2018/2019 St. Mary's Lady Lancers returned all five starters from last year's team. Seniors Caroline Zanghi and Caitlin Bish are leading the way and have been starting since their freshman year. Fellow Seniors, Tori Wipperman and Emily Molnar, are providing experience and leadership throughout the season. A Trio of Juniors, Parris Maroney, Lauren Nawojski and Myla Kline, all who started as sophomores have developed their game and are leading contributors to the team. Sophomores, Sydney Ottomano and Ava Achtyl, are both building upon their freshman year success on varsity, providing depth and skill to a very talented team. Freshmen Shay Ciezki, Margaret Nawojski and Kaylin Kline, although young, bring a tremendous amount of playing experience and skill to help round out the team. St. Mary's began the season with a 16 game win streak and is looking to be a contender for the 2019 MSM class AA/A championship.
