2004

The league remained constant for 2004, with Nichols not in not out depending on who you talked to. They are a member of the A division. The Championships at the stadium produced the same champions as the previous two years: St. Francis and St. Mary's. In a strange turn of events, one week after losing to O'Hara 53-14 in the last regular season game, Walsh advanced to the A title game by beating the Hawks 3-0 with a 31 yard field goal with six seconds to play. Zak Kedron from St. Francis became the first Monsignor Martin player to rush for 2000 yards. In competition against Harvard Cup schools, the Monsignor Martin league prevailed 5-3. Nichols and Walsh did not submit any statistics for the second year in a row.
